Captive Newsman Led Empty Life of Prisoner For 24 Endless Months

(Last in a Series)

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

(Copyright 1953 by The Associated Press)

I spent more than 24 months, from the spring of 1951 to the spring of 1953, in Ruzyne Prison near Prague, Czechoslovakia. All that time I lived in a cell.

I was arrested while serving as an Associated Press foreign correspondent. I was accused of espionage, convicted and sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment. I got out in less time on a pardon.

In retrospect, the weeks and months seem to have gone by fast. That is because the prisoner remembers little that happened in them — because they were empty. This very emptiness makes each day itself seem to go by so slowly.

I used to wake, to the guard's reveille call, and think, "It is 16 hours till I can sleep again; how can I ever pass that time?"

It was as if I had just fallen to the bottom of a deep well and must swim upward and upward, holding my breath, to save my life.

In a cell a man lives while he is asleep; while he is awake, he only exists. In dreams, he lives the life he cannot live in reality. I dreamed of buying newspapers, walking the streets, riding trains, eating in restaurants, talking with my wife and friends.

TIME GOES most slowly when the prisoner is alone in his cell, because then he has only his own mind to help him fight time, and his mind is likely to play him false and turn to his fate. If he has a cellmate, he has the strength of two in the fight, because he has another's resources as well as his own

I was alone only about three months in Ruzyne. But I knew one man that had spent more than nine months in solitary confinement, and another that had been waiting more than two years for trial, alone or with a companion.

I had seven cellmates, one after another: two Czechs, two Moravians, a Slovak, a Slovakian Jew and an Austrian They ranged in age from the 20s to the 60s—two mechanical engineers, a clerk, a priest, a policeman, an army officer and a politician.

The long day began with reveille around 5:30 a.m. and ended with taps around 9:30. In between, every incident, however routine, was a milestone; it meant that a certain amount of time was past, and the prisoner was that much nearer bedtime.

We dressed, folded our blankets, washed in cold water with coarse laundry soap and had breakfast We waited for the mid-morning sandwich, given to the skinnier prisoners like me. It came, and we waited for lunch. That came, and we waited for the mid-afternoon sandwich. Then there was supper, and then there were three hours to bedtime.

A MEAL WAS ALWAYS a notable event. It meant time was past, and we listened eagerly for the sounds that told us that inmates from a nearby labor camp were shuffling down our hall, setting foot outside each door.

There was always the fascinating question of what was coming for lunch.

Each mealtime, a guard opened the cell door so we could take the food in. Each inmate got a small double boiler full, with liquid below and solid above.

Breakfast was always a chunk of coarse rye bread with a coffee substitute, probably made from roasted grain. Lunch included soup, usually excellent, and mashed potatoes with gravy, spinach, cabbage, sauerkraut or carrots on top, or else heavy Czech dumplings with gravy. Supper might be potatoes, rice or boiled pearled barley, this last a tasteless dish that many prisoners flushed down the toilet.

A TIME OR TWO during the week we got bits of canned meat parts of the animal that should have been thrown away—in our gravy. There was an honest-to-goodness slice of meat on Sundays or holidays Sometimes it was good roast pork, sometimes tough, dry boiled beef. Now and then we got fresh lettuce, often with a dividend of sand The food was not elegant, but it was usually tasty and filling.

Between meals, we found a few things to pass the time. From my cellmates I learned a little Czech and Slovak and a few words of Russain, Hungarian, Hebrew and Arabic. I spoke rudimentary French with the priest, and taught him Engish.

We sang songs in several languages The politician taught me "Dark Eyes" in Russian, and I taught him "Dinah," "Me and My Shadow" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" in English.

We played questions-and-answers. We drew a chess-and-checker board on toilet paper and kneaded figures out of rye bread, which is as hard as rock when it has dried (The priest colored the "red" chessmen with toothpaste.) That gave us two more games to play.

We got books in Czech and Slovak, at the rate of one or two a week from the prison library. They were mostly propaganda novels.

I got three parcels of books in English — from my wife, from the U. S. Embassy and from The AP — novels, plays, poetry and writings on music and science. And I got some Soviet publications in English — Gorki, Dickens, Howard Fast and some propaganda magazines — from my referent. So we had something to read.

In January, 1952, I started writing songs — one-voice melodies with words — on toilet paper. Before I got out, I wrote more than 400 songs, three revues and numerous skits. (Don't look for any of these at your music store.)

We looked forward to the sched-

FRANK NOEL MEETS BILL OATIS. Two Associated Press men, Frank Noel (left) and William N. Oatis, meet for the first time in New York. Noel reached New York at the end of his journey which began last month with his release from 32 months in a North Korean Red prison camp. Oatis was released in May after two years in a Czechoslovakian prison. Noel, always a yarn spinner, tells Oatis a couple of stories in front of a welcome sign which greeted him in the photo department at AP offices.

But Still Ask Ban

Soviets Claim New Atom Bomb Tested

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government today claimed successful tests of "new type" atomic bombs in recent weeks but said it still wants an international ban on mass destruction weapons.

The announcement by the Soviet news agency Tass said the blasts occurred "in the last few weeks" but gave no details of the "new type" weapons tested.

Confirms U.S. Report

In Washington, a spokesman for the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission said the Russian announcement "merely confirms" the AEC's statement Aug 31 that a fission—atomic—explosion of about the same power as recent U. S. tests in Nevada had taken place Aug. 23 in Russia. The previous statement added the explosion "would appear to be part of a series."

The American spokesman emphasized again that the Aug 23 explosion was a "fission," or atomic, blast. Observers in Washington concluded from this that the Soviet explosion apparently did not involve the thermonuclear reactions of a hydrogen bomb.

Stirs Speculation

(Moscow's announcement stirred speculation at United Nations headquarters in New York that it was timed to pave the way for new Soviet disarmament proposals to the U. N. Assembly, which has just opened its eighth annual session in New York. These were not expected to differ materially, however, from previous Russian disarmament offers the United Nations has repeatedly rejected.)

The Soviet statement said that although the Soviet Union "is able to give attention to the production of atomic weapons," it would pursue a policy of attempting to reach agreement with other nations on arms cuts and the prohibition of mass destruction weapons under strict international control.

Asserting that Russia considers putting atomic energy to peaceful uses its most important task, the statement said the Soviets are "carrying out the task of employing atomic energy for industrial purposes."

The AEC spokesman in Washington indicated the commission had found nothing additional of interest to add to its Aug. 31 statement. At that time, the AEC said it would make no further announcement about Russian tests "unless intelligence indicates information of greater interest."

"We are standing on the Aug. 31 statement," the U. S. spokesman said last night.

A previous Russian explosion apparently had involved some kind of hydrogen blast. On Aug. 21, the AEC announced that the Soviets had conducted atomic tests Aug. 12 involving both fission and thermonuclear reactions. Thermonuclear is a term scientists often use to describe a hydrogen explosion.

193 U.S. Cities Called 'Critical' Bomb Targets

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the wake of Russia's H-bomb announcement, the United States government has tagged 193 American cities as probable targets of atomic attack —70 of them as "critical."

But the list "does not purport to include all possible targets," the Federal Civil Defense Administration said in issuing it last night.

"For security reasons," it added, "certain targets that have national or military significance, including the atomic energy installations, have not been listed."

It was the first disclosure of areas officially designated as probable A-bomb targets. It supersedes a list adopted in 1952, sent to governors and local civil defense directors but never made public. The 1952 list was ordered destroyed.

Issuance of the new list came six weeks after Russia claimed mastery of the dread hydrogen bomb and two days after municipal legal officers reported some cities are thinking about abandoning civil defense programs unless more federal aid is forthcoming.

A spokesman for the defense agency said Director Val Peterson ordered the list revised and published some time ago. The spokesman said its publication soon after the Soviet announcement was a coincidence

He said Peterson felt people might be stirred into more civil defense activity if they knew their

Election Board Urges Registry In Six Districts

"You must be registered to vote," was the emphatic reminder of Board of Elections officials today as only 402 persons, less than one-fifth of the estimated 2,200 eligible voters, registered yesterday in six newly-created voting districts in the county.

Registering in Big Island Township were 70 persons; Richland Township, 34; LaRue Village, 104, Prospect Township, 51; Prospect Village North, 70; and Prospect Village South, 73.

In addition, one person registered in Marion Township South, and two persons in Pleasant Township South. With 12 persons who registered yesterday in the city of Marion, this brought the total of those registering yesterday to 417, for a grand total of 18,918 persons registered to date with the board.

Registration for residents of the six outlying districts is scheduled to continue tomorrow from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and from 4 to 9 p.m. With the exception of LaRue Village, where the registration headquarters are set up in the Fire Departments, persons

9 Ohio Cities Listed As Critical Targets

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nine Ohio cities are on the government's list of critical target areas for atomic attack.

They are Akron, Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Toledo, the Steubenville-Wheeling, W. Va., area and Youngstown

Those cities are among 193 in the United States named yesterday by the Federal Civil Defense Administration — six weeks after Russia reported its mastery of the hydrogen bomb.

Other probable target areas in Ohio are Hamilton - Middletown, Lima, Lorain - Elyria, Springfield and Huntington-Ashland, W. Va.

GOP Leaders Press Ike For Reply to Democrats

By JACK BELL

CHICAGO (AP)—Republican leaders pressed President Eisenhower today to stop off in Chicago to answer Democratic charges that the Republican farm program has gone sour and that U.S. allies are being confused by American foreign policies.

Eisenhower is due to stop over here briefly Saturday to pick up his son, John, and family on the way back to Washington from his vacation in Colorado.

Want Ike's Reply

Sen. Ferguson, keynoter of today's opening session of a Republican rally, said in an interview he hopes to persuade the President to take out enough time to give his own reply to charges fired at the Republicans here earlier in the week by Adlai E Stevenson and former President Truman.

The Republicans, who had advertised this conference their answer to Democratic blasts, found themselves with only second string speakers after GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall became ill with a virus and couldn't attend.

Called suddenly into the breach, Ferguson blasted at Stevenson as being "soft toward communism" and offering "appeasement" to Moscow in the 1952 Democratic nominee's proposal for showdown negotiations with the Russians on a non-agression pact and a disarmament agreement.

Almost Unbelievable

"Governor Stevenson is urging us to meet at every opportunity whether it be on the Communists'

U.S. Urges U.N. To Set Date of Korean Talks

No Additional POW's Held, Red Reports

Communist Newsman Says Gen. Van Fleet's Son Is Not Prisoner

MUNSAN (AP)—A Red correspondent said today the only Allied war prisoners still in Red hands are "The handful which won't go back." The Communists said later 10 or more of those have changed their minds and will be returned tomorrow.

Some could be Americans, but the Reds did not give any nationalities

The Communists have said previously they were holding about 300 South Koreans and about 20 non-Koreans who had refused to return home. Some Americans were believed to be among the score of non-Koreans

No Answer Given

The Reds have given no official answer to an Allied demand for an accounting of what happened to about 3,400 Allied troops—more than 900 of them Americans—whom the U. N says were once known to be captives.

Communist Correspondent Wilfred Burchett of the Paris l'Humanite, told newsmen at Panmunjom the Reds are checking the list carefully. But, he said, 'There is nobody being held except a handful which won't go back."

Burchett said a number of names on the list are due "to faulty bookkeeping."

The Red newsman, who frequently reflects official opinion, said he made "an exhaustive search" for Capt. James A. Van Fleet Jr., son of the former 8th Army commander, but he said the young pilot is not a prisoner and never was. He indicated Van Fleet died in the crash of his B26 in April 1952.

Says U.S. Ace Held

He gave no numbers of nationalities other than to say one of the men was Capt. Harold Fischer Jr. of Sea City, Iowa, one of America's double jet aces (10 or more kills).

An Allied spokesman said names of the 10 or more prisoners returning at 11 a. m. Saturday (9 p. m. Friday EST) would be released soon after they are freed. He said they will have their choice of whether to be interviewed.

Meanwhile, the provost marshal general of South Korea accused the Reds of intimidating anti-Red North Korean POWs in Indian custody. He threatened to block delivery of any more North Koreans

Army Officials Continue Probe

Cause of Warehouse Fire Still Is Unknown

Investigation of the $100,000 three-hour fire which Wednesday destroyed approximately one-fourth of the Wilkins Air Force Base warehouse on the Williamsport Road, is being carried on by officials from the Wilkins Air Force Base at Shelby.

Preliminary investigation yesterday afternoon failed to uncover the exact cause of the fire and the probe was expected to continue today, according to reports from Shelby.

The blaze which broke out about 6.30 p.m. Wednesday swept through the long warehouse and destroyed about 25 percent of the building and its contents of clothing stored there for the armed forces. Fire department companies from the Marion Engineer Depot, Marion Training School, located nearby, and the Marion Township fire truck stationed in the city were summoned to the blaze. An estimated 1,000,000 gallons of water were used in a two and a half hour period.

Dean Betrayed For $5, Admits South Korean

Trapped General Then Gave Reward Money Back to Communists

SEOUL (AP)—A slightly built, 40-year-old South Korean said today he accepted $5 from the North Korean Communists in August 1950, as payment for helping the Reds capture Maj. Gen. William F. Dean.

The Korean, Han Doo Kyoo, is one of two residents of Chinan, South of Taejon, held here on charges of betraying Dean.

Had To Give It Back

Han told The Associated Press in an interview he accepted 30,000 won ($5) from the Reds for his part in the capture of Dean. He added that he "returned" the $5 to a Communist organization.

Dean, former commander of the U. S. 24th Division, was released two weeks ago at Panmunjom after more than three years as a captive. He has been under treatment at Tokyo Army Hospital for dysentery and is scheduled to depart for the United States Monday.

Han and Choe Chong Bong, 24, were arrested by South Korean national police two days after Dean was released.

Other Won't Talk

I talked with them today outside the jail room of the Seoul central police station, where police brought them to pose for pictures.

Choe would not answer questions.

Police charge Han and Choe led Dean into a trap after promising to help him return to Allied lines.

Asked if he was the first Korean Dean met in the Chinan area, Han said, "Yes."

"When was it?" I asked.

Without hesitation Han said "Aug 25, 1950."

Asked what the general said at that time, Han said, "He did not say much. I could not understand the few words he said."

Han claimed he had intended to lead Dean to "a hotel." But, he said, a group of Communist "home guards" caught the general on the way.

Police said Choe also received a reward from the Reds.

Three Injured In Four County Auto Crashes

Highway Patrolmen Investigate Pair; Two Listed by City Police

Three persons were injured in two of four accidents reported today in the county. Police investigated two of the mishaps, while highway patrolmen from the Marion post handled the others.

Two passengers were injured in a car-truck accident investigated by state patrolmen from Marion at 6:15 a.m. today on Route 23, five miles north of Marion.

Injured were Charles Haley, 29, of near Marion, abrasions on both legs and a bruised right shoulder; and John Munion, 53, of New Bloomington, laceration on the nose and face, bruised right wrist and right shoulder. Both were later treated by a physician.

The men were passengers in a car driven by John Haley, 38, of 231 W. Fairground St., which was rammed from the rear by an Omar Bakery truck driven by Perley T. Moore, 38, of 519 Adams St. Patrolmen said Haley had slowed down and the truck was unable to stop in time.

Escapes Injury

At 2.40 p m Thursday, on State Route 203, seven-tenths of a mile south of Route 739, a car driven by Rex L. Clevenger, 18, of near Marysville, was demolished when it crashed off the right side of the highway. The vehicle ripped up 100 feet of farm fence and knocked down ten fence posts. Clevenger was headed north at the time of the accident.

A 14-year-old boy was injured when the car in which he was riding struck a tree on Uncapher Ave. Thursday afternoon at 4:02. It was one of two accidents investigated by police.

Suffers Abrasions

Russell Solomon of 1034 W. Center St. suffered abrasions and lacerations when the car in which he was riding, driven by William E. Folden, 19, of near Marion struck a tree in front of 558 Uncapher Ave.

The boy was taken to the office of Dr. Merritt K. Marshall on S. Main St. where he was treated for his injuries. Folden told police he had run the car into the tree to avoid hitting a boy who had run into the path of his auto.

The car was towed away from the scene. The front end was smashed in by the impact.

The other accident reported to police also happened on Uncapher Ave. at the corner of Bennett St. At 3:28 p.m., slight damage was done to the car driven by Harold F. Retterer, 33, of near Marion when Marvin D. Buckingham, 18, of 298 Uncapher Ave. backed his car into Retterer's car.

No damage was done to Buckingham's car. The left front end of Retterer's car was slightly damaged.

Holds to Vote Ruling Out All Neutrals

Formal Notification Rejecting Peiping's Proposal Presented

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States formally notified the U. N.'s decision barring neutrals from the Korean peace conference.

In a note transmitted through the Swedish government and circulated to all 60 members of the U. N., the United States called upon the Communists to act as quickly as possible to propose a time and place for the parley along lines laid down by the Assembly last month.

The United States said it had taken note of Peiping's proposal that the Assembly reconsider its decision, but made it clear the United States would oppose any such action.

"The resolutions already adopted by the General Assembly as to the composition of the conference speak for themselves and there is nothing further to add on that subject," the note said.

The United States reminded the Communists it already had proposed on behalf of the nations fighting under the U.N. banner that the conference be held at Honolulu, San Francisco or Geneva on Oct. 1.

It added:

"We request an early reply as to place and time acceptable to each of your governments since it is essential that preparations for the conference start immediately.

The note was circulated as Australian Foreign Minister R. G. Casey called on the Assembly to stand firm on its decision that only belligerent countries be invited to sit in the peace parley.

Casey said his own government would have preferred a different decision, but has now accepted the Assembly's action and believed the Communists should do likewise.

"We believe the United Nations for its part has taken a proper decision concerning the political conference," he said, "and that the Communist Chinese and North Koreans should be advised accordingly."

Casey has taken a leading part during the past few days in private meetings of the 16 countries that fought under the U. N. banner in Korea. His view was understood to be that of the group.

The Australian foreign minister, like U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, appealed to the Communists to show by their acts in Korea and elsewhere that they want to ease world tension.

He expressed grave concern over the stockpiling of atomic weapons

Ohio Completes Plans To Buy Training Area

The restrictive use clause in the agreement with the federal government on the use of the Marion Training School was removed today. State Welfare Director John Lamneck announced in Washington he had completed negotiations with the government for purchase of the site, the Associated Press reported.

Lamneck had been in conference with government officials for about a month He is reported to have agreed to pay the government $271,848.20 for the property. It was not disclosed how much of the training school area had been purchased.

Superintendent of the school, LeMoyne Green, said he had received no notice of the agreement reached and could not comment on the new situation at the present time.

The state was restricted in its use of the school to one of educational purposes only. It is now free to advance with its plans to change the site into a reformatory similar to the one in Mansfield.

Lamneck said he had reached the agreement with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in Washington. It had been reported he was negotiating for both the land and some of the buildings on the site of the school The government was said to have agreed to remove the unpurchased buildings from the site by Oct. 15.

County 4-H Members Return From Ohio Congress

Expenses for Trip Paid By Kiwanians and Altrusa Club

Five boys and girls, members of Marion County 4-H Clubs, and four 4-H advisors and a counsellor returned Wednesday from a week at the 36th Ohio 4-H Club Congress.

The five members of the area clubs are Margaret Hinamon of the Grand Prairie Headliners, Peggy Moser of the Prospect Merry Mixers, Shirley Seiter of the Pleasant Cloverettes, Phil Weist of the Montgomery Boys and Dick Van Meter of the Meeker Trojans.

Advisors attending the meeting were Mrs. Roberta James of Big Island Girls, Carol Harriman of the Morral Farmerettes, Arthur Bish of Green Camp Wildcats and Kenneth Coon of Meeker Trojans. Rosemary Mautz of Pleasant was asked by the Congress to make the trip as a counsellor and discussion leader.

The trip was sponsored by the Kiwanis Club which paid two-thirds of the cost and the Altrusa Club which bore the other expenses.

Since Marion is one of the counties which pays regular dues to the 4-H Foundation at Ohio State University, the expenses of the advisors were paid by that group.

The Congress started last Saturday and lasted until Wednesday. During that time, the visiting club members were kept busy with daily rounds of discussions, panels, debates and talks.

All the delegates and advisors to the Congress stayed in dormitories on the Ohio State Campus. Meals were served in the cafeteria of the Ohio Union.

They met in the mornings for a general get-together and then broke into discussion groups which talked over different phases of farm living.

Theme of the Congress this year was "Working together for world understanding."

THIS GROUP OF 4-H MEMBERS and advisors returned this week after attending the Ohio 4-H Club Congress in Columbus. Left to right are Peggy Moser of Prospect; Arthur Bish of Green Camp; Shirley Seiter of Pleasant; Dick Van Meter of Meeker; Margaret Hinaman of Grand Prairie; Phil Weist of Montgomery; Carol Harriman of Morral; Kenneth Coon of Meeker; and Mrs. Roberta James of Big Island.

'MISS BATHING BOOTY.' Marla English of San Diego, Calif., has won so many cups, trophies and cash prizes in bathing beauty contests that her friends at Paramount studio, where she's a movie starlet, call her "Miss Bathing Booty." Well, that's what the publicity man said.

Collective Security In Far East U.S. Aim, Dulles Says

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles says more good will and unity in the Far East and Pacific areas could lead to comprehensive mutual security agreements.

Dulles, speaking last night at a dinner honoring Crown Prince Akihito of Japan, said the United States is vitally interested in a collective security organization in the Pacific.

This country has signed individual treaties with Australia and New Zealand (ANZUS), Japan, The Philippines, and a tentative pact with South Korea.

Noting that the ANZUS council voted to exclude other Far Eastern nations from their defense organization, Dulles added:

"This does not mean we have abandoned the development of a more comprehensive system of regional security in the Pacific area.

"But before there can be useful development by way of multilateral treaties, there is need for the development, within the Pacific area, of a greater measure of international good will and a greater unity of purpose.

"I trust that these sentiments will soon come in measure sufficient to warrant the development of enlarged mutual security measures."

Woman, 83, Is Star Witness for Lias in Deportation Case

WHEELING (AP)—A peppery little old lady who said she could remember Bill Lias when he was 4 years old was the defense's star witness at his deportation trial Wednesday

The government is trying to deport the portly race track owner as an undesirable alien.

The U.S. Naturalization and Immigration Service says Lias was born in Greece and entered this country illegally in 1909 Lias claims he was born in Wheeling in 1900.

Among defense witnesses was Mrs. Moran Parks, who told the examiners she would be 83 if she lives until Wednesday.

The grey-haired Mrs. Parks said she knew the defendant when he was "a kid going to school."

She said Lias and her son, Russell, both started to the old Fifth Ward School at the age of 6. She said the two were the same age, and Russell was born in 1900.

Mrs. Parks testified she first knew Lias when he was a tot of 4.

Mrs. Parks' son followed her to the witness stand and gave a substantiating version about Lias' childhood.

Russell Parks said he was born in Wheeling, Sept. 12, 1900, and he thought Lias was born there also about two months previously.

Married Man Gets in Doghouse Easily

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It is the easiest thing in the world for a married man to get into the doghouse at home.

All he has to do is open his big mouth, put his big foot in it and—presto! he's in the doghouse. And generally without understanding how it happened.

On the othe hand he can keep his mouth shut tighter than a clam at low tide and still find himself in the doghouse. For a doghouse has many entrances. You can get in one almost as easy by not saying what your wife wants you to say, as you can by saying something she doesn't want to hear

There are some situations in which even the most cunning husband cannot duck entrapment in the doghouse. Neither silence, lying nor honesty will help him out

Take, for one example, the case of a wife who brings home a new hat which she knows in her heart she ought to take back to the store but which she can't quite make up her mind to do. This is a typical case, as 90 out of 100 times when the average wife decides to buy a new hat she isn't going to settle for the first one she carts home.

But somebody is going to pay for her indecision, and what victim is handier than the husband? So she straps on her new bonnet, and asks gayly:

"How do you like it, dear. Is it for me?"

The poor husband is caught in the following three-way wringer:

1. Suppose he tells the truth and says, "Well, honey, of course I don't have my glasses on. But are you sure it is a hat? From here it looks like a toadstool dripping a broken easter egg, or a rainbow with fallen arches leaning on a foot rest."

He is deep in the doghouse because he has committed the gravest of all matrimonial errors. He is a husband who can tell at first sight a fashion that is wrong for his wife, something she herself is never quite sure of. This makes her uneasy, because it may indicate he actually might understand her, too, something no wife can forgive a man.

2. Suppose he lies like the peace-yearning cad he probably is and says cautiously, "My pet, that hat fits you like a glove. No other woman but you could bring out its . . . its . . .er . . .its hidden qualities." This puts him in the doghouse because she thinks either he hasn't really looked at the hat or else, "maybe the old fool is right, no, he can't be I know the hat is horrible."

3. Suppose he just looks silently at her in dumb confusion, knowing no more which way to escape than a worm in a revolving door. Well, he's in the doghouse for not helping her make up her mind about the hat. It makes no difference that she already really knows what she is going to do. Doesn't the man have a mind of his own? She has a vague memory that he used to.

Of course, there is a final, desperate alternative. The husband can exclaim hysterically:

"My golden girl, discard that horrid rag at once! Don't shadow the splendor of your brow with such frippery. Toss it away. Bare the true wonder of your curls—I count them every one apart (one, two, three') — to the envious world"

(Editor's note: Look, Boyle. No husband ever said anything like that to the woman he was married to.)

(Boyle's note: You don't say it out loud. You whisper it in her ear—the one that has wax in it.)

But ths is just a cheap subterfuge from buying her any hat at all, and any sensible wife knows it. Such a husband hasn't really escaped the doghouse. He has only postponed it, and put a deeper scar in his bank account.

The next day she will show up with an even more expensive hat—and no matter what he says he is only throwing another straw in the kennel he has made for himself.

And once a wife puts her husband in the doghouse he is like a mouse with all four paws caught in a bear trap. He doesn't belong where he is—but only genius can get him out.

(Tomorrow: How a husband can escape from the doghouse.)

SHORT FLIGHT. A crowned crane, after making its escape at Bronx Zoo in New York, darts back and forth beside wire enclosure in an attempt to elude a young volunteer chaser.

Galion's First Lady To Celebrate 101st Birthday Tuesday

Special to The Star

GALION—A year past the century mark will be chalked up for Galion's oldest citizen, Mrs. Rebecca Dye, when she observes her 101st birthday anniversary Tuesday.

Mrs. Dye is a descendant of one of the city's founders. Her grandfather, Michael Ruhl, with his brother, founded Galion in 1831. She lives in her own home next door to her son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs Ralph P. Thomas. She is lovingly cared for by Mrs. Mary Ellis who lives with her.

There will be no celebration next Tuesday, but a number of Mrs. Dye's relatives, including several of her children and grandchildren, are expected to drop in for birthday cake.

Mrs. Dye is quite alert for one of her years, and for one having to be partially confined to her bed for the past three years. She eats well, and is quite comfortable, despite her confinement. Several falls in her later years would take her to bed at times, and a wheel chair sometimes. When she was 98, she left her wheel chair and even the cane she had depended upon, but because of her exceptional energy she fell again shortly after her 98th birthday. Since that time she has not walked.

Often during her life, Mrs. Dye said she would chase her troubles and worries away by working a little harder. She had 10 children, and was widowed in 1912 when her husband, Samuel Alexander Dye, died that year. Five living children are Harry C. Dye of Galion; Mrs Ralph P. (Grace) Thomas of Galion who is secretary of the Galion Automobile Club; Lewis C. Dye of Mt. Gilead; Mrs. Fred Christman of Crown Point, Ind; and Kenneth C. Dye of Columbus.

Mrs. Dye has 17 grandchildren, 28 great grandchildren, and three great great grandchildren. She is the last of a family of six children.

His wife, Mrs. Margaret Heil, lives near Prospect.

After completing a four - week course at the Eta Jima Specialist School in Japan, he arrived in North Korea Aug. 28. ASK ORDER BE RESCINDED

TIFFIN, Ohio (AP)—A committee made up of representatives of labor, industry and wholesale and retail merchants today asked Gov. Frank Lausche to rescind an order that will close the state employment office here Sept. 30. The committee contends the bureau of unemployment compensation order for the closing is inconsistent because it shuts down the Seneca County seat office and leaves a branch office operating at Fostoria at the western edge of the county.

Back to Normal

When the word "normalcy" was coined by Warren G. Harding after World War I to describe what the country was going to get back to, there had been only a minor economic disturbance. The war boom had scarcely boomed at all, though later there was to be an unprecedented boom in stocks.

World War I was peanuts compared with the economic impact of World War II, followed by a period of systematic postwar inflation, followed in turn by the Korean war.

Again, the country is going to return to "normalcy." Many things are undergoing the inevitable changes which had to follow years of forced-draft production, saturation employment, premium-priced merchandise and inventories struggling to catch up to demand.

Buyers are expecting sellers to do some selling. Men are beginning to compete for jobs, instead of jobs competing for men.

The overtime gravy which has been squeezed out of the limited work week during the last 12 years of combined production for war and peace will no longer flow like water. Prices, which finally have ceased to go up, ultimately will start to come down. So will taxes. So will the government's staggering contribution to the national income.

This will be the meaning, the shape and the flavor of "normalcy" when it materializes — when people finally cease asking the fatuous question: "Do you think we'll have inflation?"

We have had inflation until we can't have any more. Yet that does not mean the return to "normalcy" will be construed as a return to health. It is more likely to be construed as the beginning of economic sickness, a prospect which reveals how far from normal the United States was taken by World War II, John Maynard Keynes, the Korean war and that idea which bemused Harry Truman while American men were dying and suffering in Korea: "You never had it so good."

Effective Combat Strength

Another significant cut in Air Force production, this time in jet-engine production, has been announced by the Department of Defense. It will stir up another flurry of bitter accusations that Secretary of Defense Wilson and his budget-cutters are undermining national security.

An ordinary citizen-taxpayer must make up his mind in this issue over the terms of his security and his taxes whether or not he has enough confidence in Secretary Wilson and his advisers to string along with them in what their critics charge is a dangerous policy.

The theory behind the policy is this:

Obsolete war machinery is no guarantee of national security. All that matters in the Air Force is effective combat strength. If the United States had a million B-17's, which were its main reliance in the European bombing attack during World War II, they would be as useless now as an arsenal of bows and arrows. Even the original jet planes now are obsolete.

Secretary Wilson told the American Legion convention early this month that the United States had the "most powerful and effective air force in the world." He did not claim it is the largest. Moreover, when he talked about it he included naval aviation. All aviation comes out of the same taxes and would all be brought to bear on the same enemy in the event of war.

To borrow an expression once used by Sir Winston Churchill, Charles E. Wilson did not become secretary of defense to preside over the disintegration of America's combat strength. It seems increasingly likely, however, that he took the job with a view to cutting out some of the spending which wasn't buying any combat strength.

Make Way for Tomorrow

It has been fun reviewing the first half century of flight. But there is more fun to be had in speculating about the next half century.

When aviation zooms into the 21st century it will not be using any design now in existence. All it will have preserved of the design favored by the Wright brothers and still the one most widely used will be the built-in principles of aerodynamics.

The piston engine will be gone. It is gone now on aircraft of advanced design. The intolerable hazard and burdensome expense of high-speed landings and takeoffs on long runways will be gone.

Weather will be charted as closely as roads are charted for a motorist today. There will be no more novelty in passing the sound barrier than there now is in going more than a mile a minute by car; that used to be considered a speed barrier, too.

Not everybody will own an airplane. But everybody will use airplane transportation. There will be automatic, pilot - less planes on some routes, operating like automatic elevators. Trips to other continents will be commonplace — more commonplace than trips to the extremities of this continent are in 1953.

For thrills and adventures at the end of the second 50 years of man - made flight, the Wright brothers of the future will be intent on flying successfully to the moon—"Look, ma, no wings!"

Dulles Affirms U.S. Stand

By David Lawrence

Red China Does Not Merit U.N. Seat

The aggression in Korea has not been ended. Communist China's armies still occupy North Korea. The armistice itself has not terminated the aggression.

These simple facts, expressed by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles in behalf of the United States at the meeting of the General Assembly of the United Nations, tell realistically the status of the Korean problem.

It is a statement that ought to be read carefully by those who have argued that the Korean armistice was a great victory and that it "stopped" the aggressors.

The exact words of the brief address by Mr. Dulles are so important that they are reproduced here, because this correspondent cannot find that they have been widely disseminated throughout the United States.

The full text of what Mr. Dulles said is as follows:

"I move that the General Assembly postpone for the duration of the eighth session for the current year the consideration of any proposals to unseat the representatives of the National government of the Republic of China or to send representatives of the so-called Central People's government to represent the Republic of China.

"I make this procedural motion of postponement so that we can go ahead with the regular work of this assembly in our present session.

"We know that three years ago the Chinese Communists intervened with their armed forces as aggressors, as participants in the Communist scheme to overpower and seize the Republic of Korea.

That fact of aggression has been found by the United Nations.

"After unnecessary and heart-breaking delays in negotiations to halt the fighting, an armistice was finally concluded about six weeks ago and that armistice was welcomed throughout the world, nowhere more than in the United States.

"But the armistice has not solved all the problems that were created by the Communist aggression in Korea. Armed forces of Communist China still remain in Korea.

"The aggression is yet to be terminated and the peace secured. The Chinese Communists have not shown in this matter convincing evidence of a genuine intention to end the aggression and to make peace, and, moreover, their continued actions elsewhere in Asia are far from reassuring.

"Therefore, I submit that, as things stand now, we should not even consider any proposals for the representation of the Chinese Communist aggressors in this assembly, and following the practice of earlier sessions I urge prompt adoption of the motion to postpone consideration.

"Let me add the fact that the motion I propose deals with the current year and should not be interpreted as indicating any expectation on the part of the United States to change its position after the current year. It is merely that we believe that it is appropriate that a body of this character should deal with one year at a time."

The motion made by Mr. Dulles was adopted, so evidently the other members of the United Nations, including Great Britain, have decided not to allow the question of admitting Red China to the U.N. to be used as a piece of bargaining or maneuver.

The other evening Adlai Stevenson, presidential candidate of the Democrats in 1952, told a Chicago audience that he felt the United States government should not have an attitude of "inflexibility" in dealing with the Communists over the problems of Asia.

He conveyed the impression that it would be wise to indicate a willingness to compromise on such issues as admission of Red China to the U.N.

It should be noted that even if the Western Allies wanted to bargain, it would be a gross mistake to say so in advance of the political conference at which the fate of Korea is to be settled.

There is a hint in the Dulles speech that recognition of a country and indeed admission to the U.N. is not a legalistic matter at all but is related to the behavior of a regime which seeks to be accorded the courtesies of international organizations.

The air has been cleared by the Dulles speech, and the warning about further aggressive behavior by the Communists in Southeast Asia is significant of a firming of the attitude of the United States.

New Gypsies

By TRUMAN TWILL

Speaking of people I wonder about, there was this fellow wheeling up the street this morning with the biggest, shiniest trailer you ever saw hitched to a short-hauled red truck with a cozy cab. They were from a long way off.

He and the lady sitting beside him were on their way to wherever they want to be next, and there is much to be said for that when the seasons are changing.

They can go to Bristol, Sioux Falls, Rapid City, Wilmington, Seaford, Laurel, Smyrna, Newcastle, Aguilar, Carbondale, Ignacio, Kiowa, Alameda, Fresno, Naugatuck, Derby, Bogalusa, Coffeyville;

Goshen, Winnetka, Mattoon, Griffin, Willimantic, Greeley, North Little Rock, Dothan, Waterville, El Dorado, Muscatine, Frederick, Menominee, Athol, Escanaba, Okmulgee, Chickasha, Dormont;

Massena, Nutley, Sedalia, Mankato, Brainerd, Winona, Beatrice, Loconia, Carteret, Choes, Herkimer, Piqua, Oswego, Klamath Falls, Coraopolis, Hobart, Naperville, Salida, Durango, Visalia, Moultrie, Couer d'Alene, Nampa, Petaluma, Paragould, Prescott, Opelika, Eufaula, Waukesha, Wauwatosa, Hoquiam, Provo, Lubock; Gif Spring, Tamaqua, Llyphart, Iola, Oelwein, Sikeston, Tenafly, Nyack, Tuckahoe, Lenoir, Ventnor, Gallipolis, Altus, Henryetta, Kulpmont, Laurens, Parnassus, Childress, Lufkin, Yoakum, Tocele, Clifton Forge or Menasha.

When they get there, they can throw out the anchor, plug in the electric, air out the living quarters, pull down the fold-up beds, take a stroll over the terrain and start living. If they don't like it where they stopped, there are that many more towns with just as much to offer and free roads leading to and from their environs.

There are places to plug in the electric and hook on to the other modern conveniences everywhere that human beings cluster together in the United States. Yet until recent years the only people who showed any systematic interest in a mobile existence were gypsies, and gypsies weren't respectable. That has been changed now too.

How can you tell the old gypsies from the new gypsies without a program?

Take that fellow wheeling up the street this morning with the big shiny trailer and the red truck. Take him and that lady sitting beside him in the cab.

While you're at it, take their license number and put in a ring for the police department because how can anyone be sure they aren't vagrants getting ready to steal some helpless farmer's pickup truck, or outwit him in a "hoss trade" while some old gypsy witch from another outfit puts a spell on the cow barn because the lady of the house wouldn't cross her palm with enough silver.

Who's safe any more in this country anyway with all these vagrants wheeling up and down the highways in their portable houses? Stay-at-homes, arise! What have we to lose but our mortgages?

Policy On Red China May Isolate U. S.

By Jay G. Hayden

WASHINGTON

If the Communists' aim is not a final peace in Korea but a maximum of continuing embarrassment for the United States they could scarcely have acted more cleverly than in the Chinese reply to the United Nations Korean peace conference prospectus.

First, by demanding a "round table" conference, free to discuss Far Eastern matters not directly related to Korea, the Chinese note plays up to an opinion held in virtually all capitals other than Washington and Seoul that no Korean peace is possible without a U.S.-Chinese Communist trade embracing other issues.

Second, insistence on inclusion of India in the Korean peace conference revives a question on which the United States won only because of a two-thirds vote requirement in the United Nations.

When it became apparent that the more than one-third required to block an invitation to India probably would be mustered, the Indian government gracefully removed itself from competition.

The quid pro quo for this action could have been American support, announced a few days later, for Mme. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, sister of Premier Nehru of India, for president of the United Nations Assembly.

Last but not least, the Peiping government injected a suggestion that has been arrived at in Korea might be obtained for the asking in Indo-China.

This proposal comes at a time when the United States has assumed nearly all monetary cost of the anti-Communist war in Indo-China in a desperate effort to keep the French from giving up that conflict.

There are other deft touches in the Peiping note, such for example as the statement that "the United States government and Syngman Rhee clique of South Korea are clamoring about withdrawal from the conference after it has extended 90 days."

All around the anti-Communist world the view has been freely expressed that the great United States has become President Rhee's prisoner so far as concerns the Korean peace negotiation.

Quite a few foreign diplomats in Washington have argued from the beginning that the Communists have everything to gain and nothing to lose by stringing out the Korean peace discussion and injecting into it every conceivable complication.

To begin with, the Communists have every reason to feel sure that the United States will not renew the war of its own volition, but they have no such confidence regarding the new powerful South Korean divisions if they suddenly should be relieved from U.S. restraint and given over to President Rhee's command.

And whereas the United States Army remains as completely tied down in Korea as ever, for the purpose of holding the South Koreans in leash, there are evidences already that the Chinese are giving way at the front to North Koreans.

U. S. commanders have reported that immediately after the truce was signed the Communists began construction of air fields in Korea just north of the 38th parallel, including runways long enough to receive the latest types of Russian jet fighters.

While Secretary of State Dulles has sanctioned only very guardedly Mr. Rhee's loudly expressed insistence that the impending political conference must attain complete freedom and unification of Korea within 90 days, or else, this stipulation could become a crucial deadline in U.S.-South Korean relations.

Certainly, it invites the Communists to prevent settlement within 90 days, just to see what President Rhee could or would do in that contingency.

Meanwhile the opportunities for stirring up strife between the United States and its other supposed allies are manifold.

The first sample in that line was the support by all of Europe, west as well as east, and everybody in the Far East who had a voice, of the motion to admit India to the Korean peace conference.

In that case again, as it appears, the United States' stand against India was mainly because Mr. Rhee wouldn't stand for it.

The United States eventually may find itself almost as alone on the question of recognition of communist China and admission of it to the United Nations.

Up to now all our 15 fighting allies in the Korean War are standing with us on that issue, but solely on the ground that Communist China must not be permitted to shoot its way into world society.

Should it develop, however, that China is ready for real peace provided only that it be admitted to the United Nations as an aftermath, there might be a landslide in support of that solution among non-Communist nations.

Our Arms Course Now Set

By MARK DANA

Some Pentagon and Selective Service System officials have done some quiet quizzing around the country, and have come up with the assurance (convincing to them at least) that the average Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Citizen are not insisting that the draft quotas be reduced.

The inference, according to the Pentagon—which of course is a wishful thinker on this subject—is that Americans in general realize that we have neither peace nor immediate prospects of peace, and that for a long time to come we shall need a strong military defense.

That is fairly realistic, insofar as defense necessity is involved, although among any gathering of parents of draft-aged young men there surely are some who would like to wave a magic wand and keep our forces at top strength without human personnel.

The House Armed Services Committee members get considerable mail on the subject of war-making and the persons designated to the country's fighting, voluntarily and otherwise. Yet this committee insists that few pleas come in for a reduction of draft quotas in this ticklish period.

Meanwhile, of course, the major veterans' organizations, various other groups, and unnumbered individuals speak out occasionally for Universal Military Training for peace as well as for war, and the arguments for this are understandable.

Neither the Navy nor the Air Force seems interested in inducted personnel, and are willing for all drafted persons to go into the Army as now. The Navy and Air Force claim, somewhat proudly, they can get all the men they need by voluntary enlistment.

In any case, and despite budgetary economies, our commitments to other nations in our world organizations, and our insistence that they go in heavily for military programs, apparently insure that—whether by draft or otherwise—we will have to keep our troops at large strength for such example and global coordination. Fully desirable or not, we definitely are now part of the world order—and it's a militant world.

Used Car Jargon

If you overhear your used-car salesman murmuring to his partner about a flea, a lush, a schlemeel, a slow motion, or even a murderer, they're talking about you, brother.

But, says a lexicon of used-car slang in Cars Magazine, its the car they mean if you hear them mention a pig, a dog, an old lady, or an orphan.

And you had better listen carefully, the automotive monthly implies in its November issue, and you will know if you are getting a car that has had only one careful owner ("an old lady") or lots of owners ("an orphan"), in which case you might hear tell that it has a "fufnick" or disguise, like a reset speedometer or repainted part.

If you are a "schlemeel" who doesn't know anything, perhaps a "lush" with money, you may get a "dog" or "pig" or "iron" or "load" — all ways of saying a bad car.

What you want to go after, following the Cars Magazine "used car lexicon" is "a creamer" — a really outstanding car — or, even more outstanding, "a real gorgeous."

If you are a "slow motion" who thinks it over and never buys, or a "flea" or "murderer" who drives a tough bargain, or a "live one" — real hot prospect — you may get a "violin solo," meaning some extra fancy sales talk.

You see, no dealer likes to take a "bath" — which means selling a car for a loss.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

George Ulsh, a native of Pennsylvania, who came to Marion County in 1828, was one of the early settlers in Claridon Township. Settling on the Turnpike Lands his first cabin was constructed of large poles with stick chimneys, mud jambs and paper windows. The family lived in it for four years when a larger, more substantial and more convenient house was erected. The family kept a tavern for several years, catering to travelers on the Columbus & Sandusky Turnpike which ran past the farm.

Feeling Groggy

These confusing days. You never know whether the best way to start an argument is to mention Lucille Ball, Martin Durkin, Native Dancer's hoof injury, Adlai Stevenson's Chicago speech, Brooklyn's chances in the series this year or the comparative record-breaking attendance at the Milwaukee-Dodger games or Senator Kennedy's Newport wedding.

We are still mixed up and have moments when we think Chuck Dressen won the pennant to please his grandfather, that Mr. Durkin was the victim of a plot by the sponsors of the "I Love the Taft-Hartley Act" program, and that Mr. Stevenson in his Chicago speech repudiated the charge that he voted for the "I Love Hoover" hour away back in the early 30's.

We are sympathetic to Lucille Ball. If Lucille is dangerous to America, a good laugh is dangerous, and so are good scripts and Monday night entertainments, always assuming that all the gal did was to fiddle with the idea of backing an obscure Communist candidate

It isn't easy to see why any American should have preferred the Moscow routine over the American way even then, and Miss Ball was certainly no Hollywood privation case.

Even the probers admit there is nothing to show she was ever a Commie, and she never gave any investigators the "I refuse to answer" routine so common with those who have much to hide.

Furthermore, it is hard to understand why the much heralded summer inquiry into a deep infiltration of the Broadway theater and show business generally, by characters giving all-out support to the USSR has been sidetracked, while Lucille, an entertainer, who has brought joy to millions of homes through the cleanest type of comedy, got so much committee attention.

That disposes of "I Love Lucy" and brings us to "I Love Anybody Who Gets Me A Ticket to the World Series," I Love Native Dancer, Sore Hoof and All," and to the Democratic Chicago program "I Dislike Ike."

The last named program was delivered with the greatest intensity and looked as if the Democrats were out to produce the biggest TV war picture of the year. It topped in violence "Victory At Sea" Rumpus Room," all Martin & Lewis hours and all video whodunits.

It was really the first TV panel with the panel members paying $100 a plate and with the master of ceremonies defying anybody to give an affirmative answer to the jackpot question: "Is there anything good about a Republican in public office?"

Incidentally, we have just found out the real reason why Mr. Durkin got out as secretary of labor. President Eisenhower discovered it is impossible to win an argument with a plumber.

Some of our best friends are plumbers, but we have never known one who wouldn't quite before admitting that he wasn't doing a job the right way.

Key to Success as Hostess Lies In Planning for An Emergency

By ADELAIDE KERR
Associated Press Writer

Every hostess needs some ready formulas for handling problem guests. Doing what comes naturally — or the best you can on the spur of the moment—does not always produce the best results; so, better do a little thinking beforehand and be ready.

There is the problem of the over-friendly neighbor who loves to "drop in for a few minutes" and remains a few hours. Shall you let her absorb the time you need to spend on housekeeping chores or mending the children's clothes? You may if you wish, but you will be a far happier woman if you meet her at the door the next time she makes an unnvited appearance and say in a friendly way:

"I'm so sorry to miss a chat with you, but I'm just starting dinner and I can't stop now. Perhaps we can do it another day."

THE TRICK LIES in saying it courteously and with an air of real regret, but in holding your ground firmly. If you do it well enough and often enough you can discourage entirely these long-winded visits and gain a great deal of much-needed time for yourself.

Then there is the problem of the unexpected guest your husband brings home to dinner. This is actually a test of poise, sportsmanship and family teamwork. So don't make a hardship of it; make the most of it to enhance your reputation as "a wonderful wife." A little forethought and planning will make it possible. Sit down and plan a simple appetizing dinner that can be stocked on your shelves, then order plenty of it and have it ready for such an emergency.

If that emergency finds your house a little upset, don't apologize. You weren't expecting guests. Quietly do what needs to be done to set the living room in order and let the rest go.

DON'T TRY TO rush the best china and linen to the table for the occasion, either. Use your everyday service, produce the best dinner you can, serve it with an unflustered air and a warm welcome—and your guest will depart envying your husband and remembering with pleasure the hours spent in your house. How much better to have it that way, than to have him wince with embarrasment at the recollection of irritation on your part and flustered preparations for dinner!

Another guest problem for which you should be prepared is the last - minute telephone call from the friend whom you have invited to your dinner party, asking if she may bring an unexpected house guest. All things considered, this request, reasonable enough if it concerns a cocktail party, should not be made concerning a dinner. But your friend does it anyway.

WHAT SHOULD you do? Do the kindest thing. Tell her to bring the guest, wedge in an extra place at table — even if the silverware does not all match and the food has to be stretched — and let everybody have a good time. Your easy relaxed handling of the situation will do more to establish you as a successful hostess than the most perfectly appointed dinner you could produce.

The shy guest presents another problem calling for both kindness and tact. Many people are shy because they are afflicted with self-consciousness, and the best way to dissipate this is to deflect their interest to something else. You may be able to bring your shy guest out of her shell by asking her to help you. If you can't do this, don't let her cling to a corner alone. Draw her kindly into the group, even though she does no more than listen while the others talk.

Galion School Board Employs Extra Teacher

Special to The Star

GALION—Due to record first grade enrollment this year in the Galion public schools, the board of education, at its September meeting, Wednesday night, authorized Supt. Marion E. Shank to employ an additional first grade teacher.

The board also passed a resolution, releasing seven children who live on the County Line road, south of Galion, to attend Iberia schools.

Along with its enrollment problems, the board is urging parents of all children in the schools to see that the children do not arrive at school earlier than 8:30 a.m., and 12:45 p.m. for the afternoon session.

The board employed Floyd West as visual aids educator in the schools. He also teaches general science at the junior high school.

County Dairy Herd Production Mark Hits 400 Pounds

Over one-half the dairy herds of Marion County farmers produced an average of more than 400 pounds of butterfat per cow in the yearly testing period ending July 1. Figures just received by the Marion County Agricultural Extension Service show that 56% per cent of all herds on Dairy Herd Improvement test made the high mark.

Six herds on Owner-Sampler test completed the year with averages of more than 400 pounds of butterfat per cow.

Following is the list of herds with yearly production records of over 400 pounds of butterfat per cow.

W. R. Brooks, 25 cows, 16,125 pounds of milk per cow, 565.4 pounds of butterfat per cow; Paul Lawrence and sons, 33 cows, 15,250 pounds of milk per cow, 554.5 pounds of butter fat per cow; Gomer Johnson, 20 cows, 14,751 pounds of milk, 541.1 pounds of butterfat; Z. Kiwanis Club Holds Ladies' Night Program

'Crazy People' Subject Of Address by High School Superintendent

Following an annual custom members of the Kiwanis Club entertained their wives and guests at dinner and a program Thursday night at Hotel Harding. Speaker for the evening was Harry L. Rahmann of Celina, whose topic was "Crazy People."

The guests were welcomed by Lester L. Dickey, president of the club and group singing was directed by Leonard Young with George Lane at the piano. Music for the evening was by a trio composed of Mr. and Mrs. George Lane and Homer Huffman. Guests aside from wives of the members were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Huffman, Mrs. Marion Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin M. Sanders and Miss Ruth Turner.

The speaker was presented by Julian Walker, program chairman. Mr. Rahmann who is an educator, humorist and philosopher, believes there should be more "crazy people." Let someone try to do something out of the ordinary and folks will say he is crazy, he said in proof of his belief. He told his audience "if you are successful on the job you are crazy about it and if you do a good job you have to be crazy about it." As a social worker and psychologist he was employed for four summers at the state hospital for the criminal insane at Lima and got much of his theory from observance while working. He believes that people in general might benefit from development of some of the outstanding characteristics observed in patients in these hospitals, which include stubbornness and friendliness. We should do crazy things, he said, but we must keep our eyes on a worthwhile goal, exercise more faith, get our eyes on God and keep them there.

In discussing the teacher problem in schools today he believes that unless the public gets seriously behind the program it will have to be curtailed. Making the profession more attractive to young people selecting a career is one of the answers, he believes. Mr. Rahmann holds degrees in literature, philosophy and divinity and is now completing work on his doctorate of education at Indiana University. He is superintendent of schools at Buckland, O.

In charge of plans for the meeting were Dr. W. Neil Price, chairman, Berger North, A. Merle Burch, William Coffae, Warren Wise, C. L. Baxter, Dr. Merritt K. Marshall, Cline Welch and M. A. Lambroff, social committee.

Three Hardin School Buses Pass Inspection

KENTON—Three out of 59 Hardin County school buses inspected by members of the Lima state highway patrol post last week were passed as satisfactory.

A re-inspection of the 52 buses with minor deficiencies will be made next week.

45 Physicians, Laymen Attend TB Conference

Forty-five physicians and laymen, representing 16 neighboring counties, attended the Marion regional conference on tuberculosis control Wednesday at the First Evangelical and Reformed Church. The conference was sponsored by the Ohio Tuberculosis & Health Association with the Marion Association acting as host for the region.

Attention was focused on several of the major problems in tuberculosis control, finding TB cases in general hospitals, case finding in communities and health education.

Alice I. Porter, case finding consultant, National Tuberculosis Association, spoke on the promotion of General Hospital admission X-ray programs in an attempt to increase the number of programs in Ohio. She pointed out that the American Hospital Association reported that only 33 of the 250 general hospitals in Ohio have such a program. Norbert Reinstein, director of health education, Wayne County, Michigan TB Association had as his topic "Are We Getting the Most Out of Our Community X-ray Programs?" His studies on the Detroit program revealed many shortcomings and solutions.

Attending the meeting, representing the Marion TB Association, were Mrs. W. E. Hane, president of the local association, Mrs. A. T. Ogle, Mrs. Milton Axthelm of Caledonia, and A. Charles Brooks.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state utilities commission today decided the Permian Gas and Oil Co. of Marietta is entitled to part of the $45,842 rate increase it asked.

The exact amount of the increase was not calculated.

Party's Loyalty Oath Not Issue, Senator Says

Southern Democratic Spokesman Russell Airs Convention Views

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—An influential Southern Democrat, Sen. Russell of Georgia, said today he does not expect the "loyalty oath" to be a serious issue at the party's 1956 convention.

Any attempt to revive the issue then would only alienate the South, Russell said, and he added that in the light of last year's election results it was apparent that the party will need the South to win the next presidential election. The Republicans last year carried the traditionally Democratic states of Florida, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

Just Whipping Boy

Russell contended in an interview that the loyalty pledge was used at the 1952 convention in an attempt to make "a whipping boy" of the South by delegates who were interested in "personal aggrandizement" and who thought the Democrats could win without the Southern states.

The senator did not call any names. The loyalty pledge was urged by New Deal-Fair Deal elements of the party and stirred up a roaring convention fight that brought a walkout of some Southern delegations.

In the end, however, it was compromised to require only that delegates use every honorable means to get the convention nominees on the ballot in their states under the Democratic label.

Raps Motive

Russell, who was a candidate for the presidential nomination at the 1952 convention, said, however, that he objected to "the whole spirit" behind the move. It grew out of the failure to list former President Truman's name under the Democratic label on the ballot in some Southern states in the 1948 election.

A loyalty pledge may be offered again at the 1956 convention, Russell said, but he does not believe it would be "seriously considered" because of the divisive effect it would have.

Police Charge 2 Boys With Reckless Driving

Two 16-year-old youths were cited to appear before the juvenile officer to answer charges of reckless operation of motor vehicles.

At 9:35 p.m. Thursday, a Marion County youth was cited for reckless operation after police saw him driving around in circles in the parking lot of the Big Bear Store and the alleys near the store. When he was stopped, he told police he "was mad at someone."

About one-half hour before the arrest of the Marion County youth, a Marion boy was stopped on W. Church St. He was also charged with reckless operation. Both were to appear before the juvenile officer today.

CAR ANTENNA STOLEN

Police today received a report of a burglar who wasn't interested in the car, just the radio antenna. Mrs. Sarah Darnell of 895 W. Center St. called in Thursday morning and told police that sometime Wednesday night, a burglar had broken into her garage and stolen the antenna from her car. The rest of the car was untouched, she reported. Value of the aerial was placed at $10.

into the buffer zone camps and indirectly warned he might try to free the few thousand left in Allied camps.

Lt. Gen. Won Yong Duk said the Reds are taking names and addresses of the prisoners and threatening reprisals against their families in North Korea.

However, Indian guards at the neutral zone camp recently have kept Red observers 100 yards or more from the stockades, making it almost impossible to obtain the names of prisoners.

Only about 2,700 North Koreans remain in Allied camps. About 5,100 North Koreans already are in the buffer zone camps where reluctant prisoners of both sides will choose their future.

Break-in Reported At LaRue Elevator

A break-in at the Laubis Elevator in LaRue some time between 5:30 p.m. Thursday and 7:30 a.m. today was being investigated by the Marion County sheriff's office.

Earl Laubis, owner of the elevator, told sheriff's deputies that the break-in was discovered this morning by Lester Cochran and William McWade. Entry had been gained by prying open a sliding door on the north side of the building, deputies reported.

Although the entire office had been ransacked, only item missing was a rifle, they said.

Kiwanis Members Begin Apple Sale

Nearly 500 apples were placed in the mail Thursday directed to groups and individuals announcing the sale of apples by the Kiwanis Club on the streets of Marion next Friday and Saturday.

Proceeds from the apple sale will be used for underprivileged children of the city and county of Marion. In Thursday's edition of The Star it was erroneously reported that $50 was used by the club in renovating and redecorating the small boys' dormitory at the Children's Home. This figure should have been $750 out of a total of $1,500 netted from last year's apple sales.

County Sales Tax Receipts Increase

Sales tax receipts in Marion County for the week ending Sept. 5 were nearly doubled over the same period in 1952. A total of $25,214.66 worth of tax stamps were sold in the period. This compares to a figure of $13,091.30 for the same week last year, a difference of $12,123.36.

Receipts for the entire state showed a record amount of sales tax stamps sold. Cash sales amounted to $3,317,888.92, a gain of $615,013.57 over the total collected in the same week last year.

Collections since the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, 1953, have risen to $34,251,824.25. This is over $4,000,000 more than had been collected in the same period in 1952.

Roger W. Tracy, treasurer of the state said if the receipts keep up the present pace, the record-breaking $188,000,000 collected in 1952 would be surpassed.

Total receipts since July 1 in Marion County have risen to $189,063.49, a difference of $32,811.89 over the amount collected in the same period in the county in 1952.

Jaycees Hear Talk By Hockey Team's General Manager

Tony Hemmerling, general manager of the Marion Barons hockey team, addressed members of the Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce at their monthly meeting Thursday at The "Trees" on S. Main St.

He told the group of his past experience as a hockey player and as a manager. Hemmerling also explained the game in general and told what could be expected from the Barons. Ralph Wilson, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker.

Bill Dineen, of Norwood, state JayCee vice president and national director of the JayCee's, gave a pep talk, stressing new membership and public relations. Dineen swore in a new member, Richard Haines. Dineen was introduced by Bill Flach, president, following the dinner.

and the knowledge that both Russia and the United States now have the capacity to produce hydrogen bombs. Both sides may soon be approaching the saturation point, he said, and this makes atomic control "not only urgent but imperative."

Pakistan last month supported the U.S. fight to bar such neutrals as India from the Korean peace conference. Indonesia supported the Assembly-rejected Soviet Chinese Community demand for a round-table parley of belligerents and neutrals.

The 15 U.N. allies of the United States in Korea restated their support of the American stand at a meeting last night attended by British Minister of State Selwyn Lloyd, just arrived from London.

Despite the studied effort of the Red Chinese and North Koreans to ignore Assembly appointment of the United States to negotiate on the conference site and date, the 16 allies agreed to send a new request to Peiping—by way of Sweden—to talk about those items.

A previous U.S. message also went via the Swedes. The Reds answered directly to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, rejecting the Assembly resolution on the peace conference makeup and asking that Russia, India, Indonesia, Burma and Pakistan be added as neutrals. The Communists also said the date and place of the parley should be decided after the conference lineup was settled.

Local 'Plantation' Producer of First Cotton Crop Here

Who said the South is the land of cotton"?

A Marion "Yankee," Louis Pfeiffer, of 224 Blaine Ave., is growing his own little "plantation" in his back yard right now.

Four stalks of Alabama cotton have grown to a height of more than four feet as a result of the pampering Mr. Pfeiffer gave them, and "that's taller than any cotton I ever saw in the south," as the "plantation" owner puts it.

Pfeiffer got the idea last fall when his daughter, Mrs. George Wilson, who lived in Alabama, brought some of the cotton bulbs to her parents. Pfeiffer decided to experiment with the seeds. He first started them in the basement of his home and then, last April moved them outdoors.

The blossoms first came out in a rich off-white color, then turned pink, and three or four days, after the blooms fell from the stalks. The first bulbs to pop out on the stalks make cotton, as the experienced cotton grower explained, but he said he doubted if any of the remaining ones will produce a "crop."

The Marion cotton grower said it's doubtful if he'll turn the back yard into a plantation. Cotton, he admitted, just isn't suited for the Ohio climate.

Police Charge Driver With Resisting Arrest

J. C. A. Arter, 54, of 133 N. Main St., was free on bond today after being arrested Thursday on a warrant charging him with resisting an officer in the exercise of official duty.

Arter was arrested Thursday afternoon on a warrant signed by a member of the city police force. The warrant charges Arter did not wait for the officer to finish making out a ticket for double parking for Arter's car.

The warrant alleges that Arter started his car while the officer was in front of the vehicle forcing the policeman to jump to the curb to avoid being struck.

No date for his appearance has been set.

Barter Wheat Is Sold Below Support Price

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department is offering government-owned wheat in foreign barter deals at prices below the producer support price averaging $2.20 a bushel at the farm.

This was disclosed by a department report on grain market developments which showed that week before last 1,331,000 bushels of such wheat had been sold by the department's Commodity Credit Corp. for export.

This disclosure came about two weeks after Secretary Benson had informed Sen. Young (R-ND) that the government-owned wheat is being made available for export only when the domestic market price is higher than the producer support price plus five per cent and reasonable carrying charges.

Young had criticized the department's grain selling policies, contending they were undermining farmer prices.

terms or our own," Ferguson declared. "This shows a vast misunderstanding, such a lack of comprehension of the nature of communism that it is almost unbelievable."

Ferguson told a news conference yesterday that "99 per cent of the troubles that face America and the world today were produced at the conference tables where sat the masters of the Kremlin and those who follow its gullible philosophy."

He said that while he is not foreclosing all negotiations with Moscow, "The only time to sit down at the conference table is on our own terms, not their's."

"There can be no hope of stopping Communist aggression with the cookie-pushing philosophy which Harry Truman and Dean Acheson (former secretary of state espoused for six long years and Adlai E. Stevenson now dresses up in new language once again," he asserted.

Ferguson twitted the Democrats in a prepared speech today for calling on Jacob M. Arvey, Illinois Democratic national committeeman and Chicago organization leader, to tell them to concentrate on the farm problem in next year's battle for control of Congress.

city had been labeled a probable target.

All state capitals are named, but not as critical targets unless industrially important. Other cities having 50,000 population or more are classed in the non-critical group.

The 70 critical targets, embracing a population of 67,750,982, are population centers having at least 40,000 manufacturing workers and at least one city with a population of 50,000. Washington, D.c., was included because it is the nation's capital.

The defense agency called for the entire country, inside and outside of the listed target areas, to mobilize for civil defense. No one area could cope alone with a successful attack, it said.

All possible targets for biological or chemical attack were not included, it said, because no part of the country is safe from this kind of warfare.

Harding High School Marching Band To Appear at Columbus

First trip of the year for the Harding High School band will be made tonight when the band travels to Columbus for the West game.

Cecil Gabler, Harding principal, said today for the first time the band was making trips to three out-of-town football games. It will perform at the first three road games this year.

Tonight's trip was made possible by ticket sales at the preview game with Newark sponsored by the Harding Booster Club. The Band and Orchestra Parents Association will send the band to the Tiffin game and the Harding Athletic Association will send the group to the Findlay contest.

The band has formerly made, at the most, two trips a season. Gabler also announced that tickets for the West game will be on sale at the stadium gate. There was no advance sale here. Adult reserved seats are still available for Harding home games.

Labor Group Opposes Changing School Name

Members of Roosevelt Lodge No. 1281, International Association of Machinists, went on record as opposing the change in the name of State Street Junior High School to Robert A. Taft Junior High School at a meeting in Central Labor Union Hall Thursday night.

Following the vote on the proposal, it was decided to send a letter on the issue to the board of education and possibly circulate petitions on the question later.

GOLF TROPHIES AWARDED

BUCYRUS—Women's golf trophies have been awarded to Mrs. George Halm and Mrs. Herbert Loewy, Bucyrus Country Club officials announced today. Mrs. Halm won the ladies' championship tournament and Mrs. Loewy was winner of the handicap matched play tourney.

HEADS GALION BOOSTERS

Galion—W. P. Foraker will head the Galion Booster Club this year. He was elected president when the new board of directors met Thursday night at the home of Robert C. Monnett. Other officers chosen to serve with Foraker are: vice president, William Neff; secretary-treasurer, Ashford Stover.

Radio and Television

By John Crosby

We're Not Trying To Impress Anyone

CHICAGO

Chicago contains a lot of lessons for independent television operators. Probably the most important lesson is that you don't have to imitate network television to survive; that, on the contrary, the best way to survive against a network may be to behave exactly opposite to network TV.

J. CROSBY

Few programs on Chicago's WNBQ, the NBC station here, are very big; most of them are very small — but they draw a whale of an audience anyhow. Typical of them is "Five Star Final," a series of five programs back-to-back from 10 to 11 p.m. five nights a week which has a tremendous audience, a lot of sponsors and couldn't be simpler.

THIS ONE STARTS out with a weather report from Clint Youle, a folksy gentleman who seems perpetually surprised by the vagaries of weather. Youle is a novelty among weathermen because he assumes personal responsibility for the weather rather than blaming the whole thing on sun spots or the Weather Bureau.

Once he told Chicago mothers to bundle up the children for school the next day because it was going to be cold. It turned out to be a very nice day and Youle showed up the next day in a beard. "Youle has left town," he announced. Sometimes when he makes a real bum guess, Youle's wife will show up on the show. "Clint, what kind of weather did you promise us today?" she'll ask accusingly. Chicagoans are invited to cuss out Clint when the weather doesn't suit them. It makes everyone feel better.

Following the weather comes Dorsey Conners, the coat hanger girl, with five minutes of household hints, and then the news with Clifton Utley, a very good newsman indeed.

The news has a strong Chicago flavor, full of stories about Chicago traffic problems, Chicago's Cubs, Chicago's juvenile delinquents and so forth, though the national and international field is covered, too. Then comes a sports show and finally comes Herbie Mintz.

MINTZ HAS BEEN playing piano to Chicagoans, first on radio, now on television, for what seems like generations, mostly the same old tunes — "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now," "I Ain't Got Nobody" and similar old chestnuts. Even Mintz can't resist the Chicago craze to get the audience participating in his program somehow. He's likely to invite you to get a pencil and paper and try and guess the names and dates of his ancient tunes.

All these shows, except Mintz, are long on service, short on what New York or Hollywood would call entertainment values. They're designed to fill a need for information, not designed to knock your eyes out. "There's no pressure on us," says Jules Herbuveaux, assistant general station manager. "We're not trying to impress anyone."

WNBQ, IT MUST BE admitted, has had things pretty much its own way locally so far but it may not always be that way. CBS just bought its own station here six months ago and is still feeling its way about. The ABC station, like all of ABC, was hamstrung by the merger with Paramount which was only recently approved. Since then, there has been a drastic shakeup of personnel.

ABC, though, is large with plans which are much different in sound than those of WNBQ and much closer to the old Chicago school of hell-for-leather journalism. The new program manager, Red Quinlan, likes to dream about a live TV program in which expectant fathers will be shown as they pace around Chicago's maternity hospitals. He'd like to start a radio disk jockey show with state prison inmates as the disk jockeys.

In between tunes, the convicts would tell Chicagoans why they're in prison and maybe give out with a little philosophy on how to stay out of them. Already he has a crew roaming Chicago with a tape recorder for a program called "Sound of the City," interviewing psycopaths in veterans hospitals and such people.

TOM DUGGAN, a sports announcer who was fired by NBC after getting embroiled in a name calling contest with the International Boxing Club, was snapped up by ABC where he's happily stirring up controversy on television.

Jack Eigen, another firebrand, meanwhile is raising hell with the city fathers about the street signs, the local gambling, police protection and any other causes he can jump on. ABC television looks as if it will be a lot less respectable and a lot livelier than NBC's.

Wyandot 4-H Club Member Wins State Safety Talk Honor

UPPER SANDUSKY — Patricia Rose, a member of the Marseilles Friendship Circle 4-H Club, won the Ohio State 4-H Safety Talk contest Sunday at the Ohio 4-H Club Congress held at Ohio State University in Columbus.

The Wyandot County girl represented an 11-county district in the contest after winning the Wyandot County contest, and the district contest. She will represent Ohio at the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago Nov. 29-Dec. 3.

She is president of her 4-H club this year and has been a member for six years. She was selected as a regular delegate to the Ohio 4-H Club Congress even before she won the district contest and was awarded a free trip to the congress.

Columbus Boy, 8, In Hospital After Playing Superman

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Eight-year-old Larry King posed on his second floor fire escape, adjusted the silk scarf around his head and spread the towel which hung, cape-like, down his back.

Then he took off.

"I thought the air would get under my towel and float me down like it does Superman," he said tearfully.

Then, in his hospital bed, he peeked down at the plaster casts covering his broken wrists and said:

"Tell the kids that Superman may be able to fly but little boys can't."

Texas Pharmacist's Cure-All Pill Under Fire in Washington

HOUSTON (AP)—The federal government has taken steps to remove from the market a pill that sounds like the biggest all-in-one bargain yet.

Asst. U. S. Atty. James T. Dowd filed suit yesterday to seize and condemn 1,000 of the Houston produced pills.

Devised by a Houston pharmacist, the pills are recommended for "temporary relief of physical strain, overwork, mental fatigue, nervous tension, excessive alcoholism, loss of sleep, lack of energy and pep, laziness, hangovers, mental strain."

It is also claimed they will "make you feel good and look better and nicer."

These Days

By George Sokolsky

It is often suggested that it is impossible for the United States not to recognize Communist China because that government is actually in possession of the country and its 450,000,000 inhabitants.

SOKOLSKY

The argument is unsound and without precedent. The United States did not recognize Soviet Russia from 1917 to 1933 and it did no harm to either country.

When Franklin D. Roosevelt and Maxim Litvinov concluded their negotiations by an exchange of letters, each side agreed not to interfere with the other's form of government or to engage in political activities inside the other country.

WITHIN A YEAR, Soviet Russia established the Harold Ware spy cell in the United States to infiltrate our government, an operation that was remarkably successful. That cell operated on a high level, and included Alger Hiss, whose influence on our foreign policy has proved so disastrous Actually, all our relations with Soviet Russia have been unhappy. Even while we were allies and the United States was granting Russia $11,000,000,000 as a gift, the Kremlin sent spies to steal the atom bomb and the Lord only knows what else.

Arthur Adams, Klaus Fuchs, Bruno Pontecorvo, the Rosenberg apparatus have left a mark upon Communist - American relations that will never be forgotten.

This is not just a matter of membership in a political party; it involves espionage and the theft of national secrets.

-:-

IT CAN THEREFORE be regarded as safely within precedent and reason for the United States not to recognize Communist China or any other new Communist country as long as that country's foreign policy is controlled by the Kremlin.

An argument against this conclusion is that the United States actually has recognized Soviet Russia, Poland, Rumania, Czechoslovakia and other Communist countries. Why not recognize every Communist country including the Chinese?

The answer to that is that some of the countries were recognized before they had been brought to boot by the Kremlin and were part of a series of errors made at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam.

Certainly since the American policy has been altered in 1948, there is no longer any need to rush into more misfortunes.

WITH REGARD to Communist China, there are important moral considerations Our ally in World War II was Nationalist China. The defeat of Chiang Kai-shek by the Chinese Communists was due to errors of judgment on the part of General George Marshall, who represented the United States in China.

He arranged a truce which hogtied Chiang Kai-shek but gave the Chinese Communists ample opportunity to reorganize for further warfare and Chiang's defeat.

The United States is therefore under an obligation to Chiang Kai-shek and the Formosan government, which is moral in nature. The errors which brought on his defeat were not Chiang's; they were Marshall's. They were not China's; they were America's.

There are some who shrug this idea off as unrealstic. Their argument is that whatever happened in 1948 and 1949 is over the dam; that we are concerned not with the past, but with the present and the future.

The pro-British element in our population goes one step further in this reasoning; they say that the British need the China trade; that if we want to stop subsidizing Great Britain, we must restore her trade and therfore that we have to recognize Mao Tze-tung. They go a step further and ask: if the United States recognizes Tito, why not Mao?

THE ANSWER to that is that the United States undertook the task of preventing a breach of the peace in Korea; that the United Nations, by resolution, invited the United States to assume this responsibility; that Great Britain so voted and partook of the Korean War by a token force.

Further, it may truthfully be contended that Gen MacArthur defeated the North Koreans, whereupon Soviet China intervened, sending a large and well-equipped army to make war upon the United States.

In the Aesopian language of the Communists, this huge force was called "volunteers," but it was a direct military action against the United States. We suffered 150,000 casualties in that war, including 25,000 dead.

The least we can say is — Lest we forget!

To grant the Chinese Communists recognition after such a brutal war with its inhuman treatment of our sons is to reward treachery and international indecency Why should we do it? What can possibly be gained by such recognition?

RECUPERATING from a tragic motorboat accident in which she lost a leg and an arm while swimming in Lake Arrowhead, Calif., former Western Airlines stewardess Boni Buehler of Scotts Bluff, Neb., is flown home. United Air Lines passenger agent Ray Basham is wheeling Miss Buehler, 23, during a two-hour stop-over at Stapleton airfield in Denver.

The Oatis Story

uled events of each week: The buying of cigarettes, candy, cookies and fruit from a prison officer who took orders at the cell door and delivered the goods a few days later, the arrival of clean unbleached-muslin underwear from the prison laundry (we got a change of our tan burlap uniforms only when they began showing dirt or holes.)

Outside Trips

There were shower baths about every two weeks, trips to the doctor's or dentist's office as needed. (The dentist filled numerous cavities in my teeth. The doctor put me in the prison hospital with what was diagnosed as tuberculosis.)

There were, on rare occasions, walks in the prison courtyard. And there were, for me, five automobile trips to Prague, when I eagerly drank in all the sights of streets and houses and people and trees and grass and sunshine and sky and space that I missed in my cell.

The first time, I went to Pankrac Prison to testify at a trial of a group of Czechs accused of espionage and linked through a devious web with my case. The police made it clear how I was to testify. That was in March, 1952.

Six weeks later I was taken to the downtown police station to meet U. S. Ambassador Ellis O. Briggs. (Only then did I learn that the police had been wrong when they told me, "The American Embassy is doing nothing for you.")

Hands Outside

There was a visit, the following October with another embassy man, Charge D'Affaires Nat P. King, and a trip to a hospital for a physical examination some five months after that. I had a second visit with King only two days before my release. (Neither of us knew then that I was about to be freed.)

Incidents like that were rare breaks in the monotony. In the cell there always came a time when we ran out of things to do, and there we were again, pacing the floor and waiting for bedtime.

There was a rule, probably intended to prevent suicides, that every prisoner, unless specifically excused from doing so, must sleep with his hands outside his blankets. (As a frail-looking foreigner trusted not to do himself in, I got an excuse.)

A few of the guards, especially the younger and newer ones, enforced this to the letter. While a prisoner sleeps, he is likely to pull his hands under the covers almost by habit. And when my cellmate did so, such guards banged on the door, "Hands outside the blankets!"

Both Awakened

And then we were both awake, and back in prison. And then we went back to sleep, and pretty soon again we heard the same cry, at our own door or somewhere down the hall. On nights like that, nobody slept right.

Through every night, the electric light burned overhead. Every few minutes a guard looked through a peephole in the door.

If he was the right kind of guard, we slept in spite of all that. But always there came the dawn, and there was another day to get through — 16 hours —960 minutes — 5,600 seconds. That way, I struggled through two years.

Shortly before midnight May 15, 1953, a guard awoke me and took me before a secret police officer. The officer told me that President Antonin Zapotocky, acting on a letter from my wife in St. Paul, Minn., had forgiven the rest of my sentence. The next morning at 9:30, I left the prison for the last time. And less than six hours later an American Embassy car carried me out of Czechoslovakia.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

The President of the United States is, in effect, being called a liar and a doublecrosser by men of great influence — the AFL's most prominent leaders.

RIESEL

This has been brought down on him by a handful of his own advisers. So badly have they briefed him that, were they military aides, they probably would be courtmartialed.

For they have, among other things, failed to impress on him the fact that American labor leaders are such a force in this nation that they must be dealt with personally and regularly by the President just as he deals with the military high command and the State Department.

He can be tough and reject their demands. Or he can give them what they want. But it must be on some definite basis and the President must know it as detailedly as he would a battle map.

FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT and Harry Truman knew this, and I will never forget the morning of Oct. 25, 1944, when I walked into FDR's office with two prominent AFL leaders.

The late President folded the map on which he had been tracing the U.S. forces in battle with the Japs in the Coral Sea. And for an hour and a half he discussed vital problems with the labor men.

There was recognition of labor's power. There was recognition that it must be dealt with personally, even at the climax of a great war.

And that's what many high Republican leaders, especially those who know the intricacies of contemporary labor power politics, have been trying to impart to President Eisenhower. Coddle it or control it, befriend it or fight it. Labor must be dealt with directly by the President without assigning it to subordinates unless there is a clear and definite policy.

BUT THE GOP heads failed to get through the White House guard which has been isolating the President. They had wanted to warn Eisenhower that there would be a blow up because the White House had not developed a labor policy, but was playing an unrealistic game with union leaders — who are the toughest, most sophisticated bargainers in the world.

The White House "palace guard" policy was so naive it was absurd. It was aimed at getting labor votes in the 1954 congressional election by wooing the most loyal Democrats inside labor instead of building up a machine of powerful Republican labor leaders.

This sugary approach to Democratic labor men, who were even then preparing to smash the Republican Party's hold on Congress, was developed by the men around Assistant President Sherman Adams.

It all began a few days after the votes were counted — revealing the greatest personal victory ever rolled up by a presidential candidate. The Adams' strategists told a still confused President-elect that he should call in AFL president George Meany as a gesture of good will.

THIS INVITATION sounded silly to many observers, because only a few weeks earlier the AFL council had refused even to have breakfast with the GOP presidential candidate on the morning before Eisenhower was to address the AFL convention.

Ike wanted that ham - and - eggs gabfest so he could ask the AFL-ers just what they wanted. They let him go on their platform without making a deal with him.

In all fairness it should be reported that the AFL leaders did this because they knew that they were going to support Adlai Stevenson, officially, and it would not have been right to make a deal with Ike and then have the convention itself oppose him.

So when Meany was called in he knew exactly what was happening, although Ike had not been around long enough to get the nuances. Eisenhower in his fraternal, honest manner then asked Meany to confer with Sen. Taft and work out the differences between the GOP and the AFL.

THEN THE ADAMS crowd got Ike to appoint a New Dealer as Secretary of Labor, still thinking they were wooing the Democratic labor chiefs away from the Stevenson-Truman labor combine.

They didn't. All they succeeded in doing was alienating the Republican AFL leaders who had tried, behind the scenes, to stop the AFL endorsement of Stevenson. This meant that the Republicans were also losing their own labor people without influencing the Democratic labor chiefs like George Meany one bit.

Furthermore, the Adams crowd was simply catapulting the administration into a fight with the unions by permitting the Labor Department to be a Democratic oasis in a Republican administration.

Ex-Secretary Durkin didn't touch the department of course — and that division is still run by men sent in or hired directly by Harry Hopkins and Madame Frances Perkins.

They and Durkin were pulling the government in one direction on the labor front — and other Cabinet members were trying to get it rolling the other way. The explosion came because both sides were talking and making definite pledges for Ike. Time now he talked for himself.

Chemical May Be Possible Cure for 'Lawnmoweritis'

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Chemical being used by the Ohio Highway Department may end "lawnmoweritis"—the summer disease known to make men lie down at the sight of uncut lawns.

W. J. Garmhausen, the department's chief landscape architect, said MH40 can be sprayed on grass in April and will so stunt the grass' growth that it won't have to be cut all summer.

In Columbus, an Ohio State University agronomy professor, Charles J. Willard, said the chemical "sure will work if applied at the proper time and place. We sprayed it on blue grass and it just stood there without growing for three months."

However, he cautioned, he would not recommend it for home use because it will kill some kinds of grass if applied at the wrong time

Tickets Sold Well Before Misprint Was Corrected

KINGS MOUNTAIN, N. C. (AP)—The tickets read "all-night sinning" and the first 500 sold like hotcakes Then the printer's mistake was discovered and the sponsoring ladies Bible class of the East Side Baptist Church hastened to correct it by having 500 more printed reading, "all-night singing."

The sponsors solemnly reported yesterday they haven't sold a single ticket of the second batch.

Silence Is Golden

By Inez Robb

If there is an inventor in the house, let him set to work at once on the perfection of a gadget that could save the living theater and round actors from oblivion.

INEZ ROBB

The theater may be in crying need of more money, actors and more modern auditoriums But these things can wait. The immediate need of the theater today is a high fidelity hearing aid that will enable the customer to tune in the actors and tune out the audience.

MORE LAVISH productions, better plays, bigger actors and fancier theaters would merely irritate the patron who can't now for the life of him hear a word that's said on the stage because of the continuous yak-yak of everyone around him.

The gentle art of conversation may be a dead pigeon elsewhere but it is a screaming eagle in the theater. Or am I out of step with the times? Am I the only person nowadays who goes to the theater to hear what takes place on the stage

Only a few nights ago I scraped the bottom of the barrel to pay the standard $7.20 for a fifth row seat to "Me and Juliet," the latest Rodgers and Hammerstein musical.

LET ME SAY right here and now that I am of the firm opinion that $7.20 ought to buy a front seat to "Adam and Eve," "Joan of Arc," "Henry V" or "Don Juan in Hell" with the original casts, and no substitution of Charles Laughton for Old Nick

So I am doubly convinced when I pay that inflated price for even a Rodgers and Hammerstein original that I ought to be able both to see and hear what transpires on the stage.

But there was so much yaking all around me the other night that I never did get the thread of the story, and nothing is so aggravating to a romantic like myself as uncertainty as to whether boy got girl.

I presume he did, since everyone on stage looked happy during the finale. But it may have been because they all had a bet on the Dodgers. You couldn't prove by me.

AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION in radio and teevee may be a fine thing. But it is murder in the theater and calls for capital punishment People don't even to bother to lower their voices any more.

The people in back of me the other night had a little difficulty at first in drowning out a 20-piece orchestra and a large cast and chorus. But they adjusted quickly and within ten minutes their voices were ringing clear and true above all the annoying competition from the stage.

It is inadvisable to ask such polished performers to be quiet. To do so is to run the risk of being loudly berated and having one's self tagged as an eccentric and outcasts who has no one to talk to.

A HIGH FIDELITY hearing aid such as I suggest would also be adjustable for the movies, where the steady crunch, crunch, crunch of popcorn, peanut brittle and lobster claws is the theme song of most epics.

This gadget would make it possible to dial out the crunch without dialing out Dinah.

It is obvious that theater audiences are not going to reform. Their decibel-rating soars annually. The only solution for cranks like myself who go to the theater to look and listen is a hearing aid for ourselves or a maxim silencer for our neighbors.

Ohio Still To Get Funds for Disabled, Lamneck Asserts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio will continue to receive federal money for its permanently disabled at least for the time being, John Lamneck, Ohio welfare director, said Thursday.

The state has been threatened with a shutoff of such funds because Harrison County refused to join the program. The law requires statewide participation.

Lamneck, after discussing the the matter with representatives of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, said:

"There will be no withdrawal of federal funds without an opportunity for a hearing before the department secretary (Oveta Culp Hobby) or her representatives.

"We are going back to Ohio to investigate cases in Harrison County to ascertain whether there are any cases where persons are eligible for permanent disabled aid."

If there are, he said, he will try to persuade them to apply for aid and get Harrison County into the program.

Coincidence or Propaganda?

Soviet A-Bomb Reports Flashed When U.N. Meets

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — (AP) Twice now within a month—and both times when the United Nations was in session, considering the Korean peace conference—the Russians have announced new atomic explosions.

This might have been coincidence. But, since the Russians know the value of psychological shock and could pick any day for their announcements, they can be assumed to have deliberately picked their time

1. Perhaps to frighten the non-Communist U.N. members, when they were all together in New York, with news of Russia's developing ability to make atomic war One of the announcements involved hydrogen bomb-making.

2. Through fear, to make these U.N. members generally less willing to buck Russia and particularly Russia's idea of how the Korean peace conference should be held and who should take part

The Eisenhower administration, although taking due note of Russia's hydrogen progress, apparently hasn't been softened a little bit in its hard attitude toward Russia.

Yesterday at the U. N., just a few hours before Russia's latest atomic announcement, Secretary of States Dulles lashed into Moscow with a major foreign policy speech. It was hardly more than a repetition of a speech made five months ago before there was any news of Russia's hydrogen progress

On Aug. 17, the U.N. General Assembly met in special session to choose its representatives to the Korean peace conference, with the United States insisting that if Russia was permitted at the peace conference it would have to be as a guest of the Communists, not on the U N. side.

On Aug. 19, in the midst of the U.N. argument, Moscow announced it had achieved a hydrogen explosion.

The United States Atomic Energy Commission immediately confirmed the Russian explosion with the statement it had occurred Aug. 12. Moscow did not explain why it waited from Aug. 12 to Aug. 19 to make the news known.

On Aug. 23 the Russians had more atomic explosions. This was made known on Aug. 31 by the Atomic Energy Commission. Russia said nothing.

On Sept. 14, last Monday, the U.N. General Assembly, which had ended its special session in late August, came back into regular session. Once more it tangled over the Korean peace conference, with the Communists demanding:

That the Assembly reverse what it did in August—it upheld the United States position then—and let neutral nations and Russia sit in on the peace conference.

On Sept. 18, last night, Moscow announced more atomic explosions, probably the ones which the AEC said on Aug. 31 had occurred on Aug. 23. Moscow did not claim these latest explosions were of the hydrogen kind.

Five months ago, on April 16, Eisenhower, speaking for a government which had become exasperated with hearing Moscow talk of peace which it was blocking, expressed this country's policy on working out peace with Russia.

What he said, if summarized in undiplomatic language, would be this: put up or shut up.

He phrased it more politely. He said this country would take Russian peace talk seriously when Moscow showed it wanted peace by giving proof, in deeds.

He gave a list of deeds he said would show Russian good faith: a Korean armistice and peace conference; unification of Germany; a peace treaty for Austria; and others.

Since April the Communists have met only one of Eisenhower's terms: they agreed to an armistice in Korea. But at this moment it is uncertain whether they will permit even the next step: a Korean peace conference.

Yesterday, in his speech to the U.N., restating what Eisenhower had said in April, Dulles simply told the Russians that five months have not softened the American attitude toward Moscow.

He talked for 37 minutes What he said could be boiled down to five words: put up or shut up.

National Meet Opens

Thousands Attend Soil Conservation Field Days

AUGUSTA, Wis (AP) — Midwest farm folk by the thousands streamed into this small Wisconsin community today to see the biggest agricultural show of the year.

They gathered on the 80 acres that make up the Thompson Creek watershed to learn how best to fight corrosive effects of the weather, to see state and national plowing matches and to view a two million dollar exhibit of farm machinery.

The two-day show is called the National Soil Conservation Field Days and Plowing Matches

On the first day's schedule today were the Wisconsin plowing matches; demonstrations of stream bank improvement, waterways, terracing, tilling and channel changing and programs for rural women stressing modern homemaking ideas. The national level and contour plowing champions will be decided tomorrow. The final event on the program is a major address by Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Hundreds of tents housing the machinery exhibits and refreshment stands dotted the area The crowd is expected to reach 50,000 tomorrow. Forty state traffic patrolmen and 20 game wardens will be on hand to keep order.

Irrigation experts poured water at the rate of 800 gallons on a minute for several hours yesterday on the fields where the state level plowing event was to be held to soften the parched land Sites for the state contour and the national matches have a good stand of feed grass and are in better shape for plowing.

The two national champions crowned at Kasson, Minn., last year will defend their titles. They are Graeme Stewart, Plainfield, Ill., the level land winner, and Martin Cummins, Lewiston, Ohio the contour king.

Steel Production Drops As Supply, Demand Meet

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Weakness in the metal markets—both present and foreshadowed — has businessmen watching this traditional barometer.

Some customers are taking to sidelines while they watch these developments

Steel supply and demand is near balance. Production is off. And some in the industry see price cuts in some steel products as a coming possibility.

Zinc and lead producers and users are wondering how long the present neat balance in world supply and demand, with price stability, would survive an anticipated deal by the U.S. government to take Chile's 100,000 tons of unsold copper off her hands. If Chile should start pouring 30,000 tons a month into the world market again, copper prices might tumble.

Even aluminum, riding the crest of the big defense demand, may see a change in the picture early next year, some leaders in the industry say.

Cancellation of plane orders by the government—a large new one in plane engines has just been announced—will ease the demad for aluminum a little. At the same time the defense-inspired expansion of facilities is bringing new aluminum-making capacity into operation.

Businessmen watch the metals markets much the same way that stock traders watch their charts When the stock averages dropped to a new low Monday, Wall Street called it confirmation of the bear market At this late date they can now assert a bear market started in January.

Metal prices are often the last to turn down in the commodities field. In a sense, a break in the price of copper or steel would "confirm" a bear market in commodities—a down-trend that dealers in nonmetal lines have witnessed for many months.

The price of lead slid off a half a cent to 13½ cents a pound Wednesday. Sellers said that consumers have stopped buying and supplies are backing up in producers' hands. At the same time there is a flood of scrap lead, mostly old auto batteries.

UMT for Chinese On Formosa Ends Age-Old Tradition

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — All graduating college students on Formosa now must take military training—and thereby hangs a story of a great reversal in old China tradition.

An experiment born of the necessities of civil war and the danger of international conflict brought the change in this island bastion of Chiang Kai-shek's Chinese Nationalists.

On the mainland it was tradition that soldiering was far beneath the dignity of scholars For many centuries they had considered themselves too precious to bear arms.

But under the present order here, no able-boded student graduating from a university or college may get his diploma until he has had one year of military training.

Whether sons of Cabinet ministers, industrial magnates or cooks, they are equally liable. As a result, soldiering has found a new respect. It is no longer despised as something on which a scholar and gentleman would turn his back.

In former days on the China mainland, before the Nationalist government retreated to Formosa, there was a conscription law which required military service by all males, but it was not rigorously enforced. Sons of influential people, especially scholars, escaped it

But not so here in Formosa. The graduate training program now is in its second year.

This year the graduates are due for military training. About one thousand of them entrained for military school recently and a crowd of more than 10 thousand gathered at the railway station to see them off.

Levies Sought By Crawford County Schools

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — New or renewed tax levies will be sought at the Nov. 3 election by 10 schools in Crawford County while a hospital bond issue will be submitted to Crestline voters and a one-half mill levy for recreational purposes will be on Bucyrus voters' ballots.

A proposed $400,000 bond issue for grade school additions in Bucyrus also is expected to be filed with the elections board next week.

At Crestline a $270,000 bond issue for construction of a new 35-bed municipal hospital will be on the ballot. If the issue is approved, an additional $100,000 is expected to be raised by public subscription, advocates of the proposal, have stated.

A half mill levy for recreational purposes in Bucyrus was placed on the ballot again by city council this week. A similar levy failed to receive the required 60 per cent vote last November. This is a 5-year levy.

Only schools not seeking additional tax levies or renewals of existing ones are Galion, Whetstone and New Washington.

The proposed school levies, all for five year periods, include: Bucyrus, one mill; Crestline, two and one-half mills; North Robinson, three mills; Mt. Zion, 3 15 mills; Tiro, five mills; Leesville, two mills (three years); Chatfield, two mills; Lykens, three mills; Sulphur Springs, five mills, and Holmes-Liberty, three and one-half mills.

Chiropractors Observe Chiropractic Day Here

Today was declared as Chiropractic Day by Marion men of that profession, marking the observance of the historical date on which Dr. Daniel David Palmer established the principles of chiropractic and gave a "new science of healing" to the world. Endorsed by the National Chiropractic Association, Chiropractic Day is internationally observed each year

This marks the 58th year for chiropractory as a separate field of therapy being second in numbers only to the medical profession. At the present time, there are approximately 23,000 chiropractors in the United States and Canada, with 12 accredited colleges serving the profession.

Congressmen Sail To Study 'Voice' Abroad

Three To Investigate 'How Wisely' U.S. Is Spending $75 Million

NEW YORK (AP)—Three congressmen sailed Thursday on an around-the-world study of how "wisely" the 75-million-dollar budget of the Voice of America and allied projects is being spent.

Also aboard the liner United States were Maryland's two senators, bound on other overseas missions.

The three representatives are Frank T. Bow (R-Ohio), Sam Coon (R-Ore) and Prince H. Preston Jr. (D-Ga), comprising a subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee.

Bow said he and his colleagues would be abroad for two months, starting their investigation in London and continuing on to the Near East and Far East.

"We are going to find out if the program is a good one," Coon told newsmen. "Any program for peace or one which explains the United States position is a good one. We are hoping to find ways to get more efficient spending."

Coon said the subcommittee so far had found "few instances where there are chances to make economies, particularly in this country."

Bow said the subcommittee also would check into foreign building and housing owned by State Department agencies abroad and make a survey of criticized housing for Mutual Security Administration and Army officials abroad.

TRUSCON STEEL CUTS BACK

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Republic Steel Corp's Truscon Steel Division here announced 65 per cent of its 1,400 production employes will be cut from a 5-day work week to 4 days, starting Sunday. The firm blamed the move on a drop on home construction throughout the country.

BOY HIT BY CAR, KILLED

CINCINNATI (AP)—Seven-year-old James Murphy was killed yesterday by an automobile. Police said the boy, enroute home from a grocery, suddenly darted across a street in the path of an automobile.

PROVERBS 3:6 — "In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths."

In a disordered world when the confidence of many is shaken in religion's basic truths, it is easy to become confused, disorganized, and conclude that all stabilities are swept away. In such chaotic times as these, it is good to remind ourselves of the fact of God and that when His children sincerely acknowledge Him, He will guide them and give meaning and purpose to life.

This verse stands as a sentinel ever to remind us that discipline is an absolute essential to rewarding accomplishments and that God's blessings are like all other worthwhile blessings, the result of disciplined surrender. Ours is not a happen-chance world. We invest time, talent, application, and certain achievements result to reward us. How rewarding it is to know that this accepted and observable truth is equally true of God. We surrender to His guidance and He rewards us by granting us a sense of direction and certainty in life and thus giving meaning to all that we do.

Jesus reiterated this great truth many times in such statements as this, "If ye abide in me and I abide in you, ask whatever ye will, and it shall be done unto you." This verse is more than a beautiful thought; it is a great and trustworthy principle by which to live.

Cincinnati Test Site for Postoffice Decentralization

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cincinnati has been designated a "pilot study" regional office in the first step of a plan aimed at a drastic decentralization of the Postoffice Department, it was disclosed today.

Deputy Postmaster General Charles R. Hook Jr. said the Ohio city will be headquarters for a tri-state region, consisting of Ohio, Indiana and, he thought, Kentucky.

The department will transfer, as much as possible, administrative functions for that region from Washington to Cincinnati, he said.

If this works out as hoped, Hook said, the entire Postoffice Department will be decentralized into regions throughout the country, as recommended by the Hoover Commission on Government Reorganization.

The Hoover commission recommended 15 regional headquarters.

In the early days of New Mexico, vintage French wines were imported at high prices for military receptions although New Mexican wines were considered excellent.

Crestline Mail Office Closing Brings Protest

WASHINGTON (AP)—The office of Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) today reported and protested a Postoffice Department decision to close the mail transportation office at Crestline, Ohio.

John McElroy, Bricker's administrative assistant, said a major reason given for the decision was that the postal inspection service discovered a number of clerks assigned to sort mail on trains travelling between Chicago and Pittsburg.. were getting off the trains before their runs were completed. Crestline now is headquarters for the Pittsburgh-Chicago run.

He said he was told about 140 clerks would be disciplined for the alleged actions, but added:

"We in this office strongly suspect that some Democrats in the inspection service suddenly discovered this business to embarrass the Republican administration.

"I hear they (the clerks) have been doing this for 20 years. Why aren't the inspectors checking up all over the country?"

McElroy said the department now plans to consolidate Crestline with Pittsburgh, and designate the Pittsburgh office headquarters.

Nixon Gets Ready For Far East Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon, having boned up on the writings of world travelers Adlai E. Stevenson and Thomas E. Dewey, starts a "listening, learning and working" journey to the Far East next month.

Nixon told newsmen his aim is to make friends for the United States and collect information for President Eisenhower. He said he will talk to farmers and workers, as well as top officials.

"The trip," he said, "will convey the policy of the administration to give equal empasis to the Far East, southeast Asia, and Europe—in fact, to all areas and all peoples."

New Trip Planned By 'Sailor Minded' Spanish War Vet

CHICAGO (AP)—Harvey H. Hecker, 76-year-old retired civil engineer, is building an 18-foot cabin cruiser which he hopes will solve his winter vacation problem.

Hecker, a Spanish War veteran and Army captain in World War I, plans to pilot his craft through the Illinois and Mississippi waterways, through the Gulf of Mexico and to New Port Rickey, Fla.

He said he became "sailor minded" while living in the old soldiers' home in Sandusky, Ohio, and last year traveled more than 7,000 miles in a prefabricated "kit boat."

Harding Hits Columbus West Tonight

Presidents Take to Road In Regular Season Opener

Harding is set for its regular season football opener tonight. Coach Pete Howison's Prexies travel to Columbus for the game with Columbus West's Cowboys.

Pete says his team is in "Pretty good" shape for the game. Three mainstays are nursing injuries but Pete reports that they probably will be ready for action by kickoff time.

Minor Injuries Reported

Bob Hamor, who plays offensively and defensively as a tackle and line-backer, is shaking off the effects of a charlie horse, and Doug Bibler, offensive and defensive backfield man, is suffering from a knee injury received in the preview game with Newark last week. Bob Prater, a defensive end, is troubled by a sore foot. Still shelved with an injury suffered several weeks ago is Jim Peacock, a junior guard.

Pete sent his charges through scrimmages the first part of the week followed by brushing the Presidents up on offensive and defensive tactics in preparation for the West tilt.

Tentative Lineup Listed

The tentative offensive lineup will have Gene Armstrong and Bob Stauffer at ends; Frank D'Eramo and Bob Hamor at tackles; Abner Thomas and Whitey Clinger at guards; and Bob Caldwell at center. Don Schweinfurth will be in the quarterback position and Gary "Chug" Ballinger will be at fullback. Any two of a trio of Chet King, Joe Albinack and Bibler will be at the halfback slots.

Defensively, Jim Whaley and Fred Hazen will be at the ends. Larry Harper and D'Eramo will operate from the tackle posts and Larry Sager and Hank Rinnert will be at the guard slots.

Thomas and Hamor or Phil Luke, a sophomore, will be at linebacker positions. Halfbacks will be Joe Snouffer and Fred Price and Bibler will be at safety.

West Is Heavier

West, which downed the locals by a one-touchdown margin last season, will have a weight advantage, its line averaging nearly 170 and its backfield 160.

Coach Mack Pemberton has ten lettermen back but only two — Doug Cole, a fullback, and Tom Ongaro, a halfback, are offensive men. Gone from last year's squad are two all-state selections, end Jerry Trabue and tackle Tom Thomas, and also Dick Orr, West's 138 - pound quarterback, sparkplug of the team.

West, possessors of a 7-2 season mark last season and second place finishers in the City League, has already appeared in three games this season. In the regulation practice games, West lost to Newark 6-0 but came back to down Cambridge 27-12 and Grandview 14-0.

The locals in an abbreviated four - quarter game last week stopped Newark 20-0 at the stadium.

Gavilan Choice Of Bettors in Title Defense

By JACK HAND

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Kid Gavilan is looking past tonight's welterweight title defense against rugged Carmen Basilio of nearby Canastota toward a double world championship.

The Cuban Keed has designs on the middleweight crown if he gets past Basilio in a 15-round bout that will be seen and heard nationally by radio (ABC) and television (NBC) at 9:00 p.m. (EST) with Syracuse and a 100-mile area blacked out on TV.

If Gavilan wins he is obligated to risk his 147-pound title against Johnny Bratton, former NBA champ, within 60 days but he and his manager, Angel Lopez, already are talking about bigger game.

As Gavilan is a 3½ to 1 choice to dispose of another local hero before the home folks, he can afford to look ahead. If Basilio, 26-year-old son of an onion farmer, upsets him, it will be Carmen's turn to do the talking. The winner must fight Bratton next under terms of an agreement with the New York State Athletic Commission.

St. Mary Gridders Prep for Mid-Ohio Opener Saturday

St. Mary is prepping for its regular season football opener here Saturday night. The locals are host to Cardington in a Mid-Ohio Conference game.

Winner of the game will join either Richwood or Elm Valley in first place in the new loop organized last winter. The latter two teams meet tonight at Elm Valley. Mt. Gilead, fifth member of the conference, is at Utica in a non-league engagement.

The Irish will again be troubled by a weight disadvantage. The visitors' line averages 188 pounds to the man but Coach Ray Robbins defeated a heavier Fostoria High School in their preview last week 7-6.

Cardington, with an almost veteran line, is being coached this year by Ed Wolfe, who was at Waynesfield High School the last five years as football and basketball coach. His charges, in their only action of the season, tied Mt. Gilead 0-0 in a preview there.

Buck Gridders Ready For Opener, Says Hayes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—With the season's opener against Indiana coming up a week from tomorrow, Ohio State University Coach Woody Hayes believes his team is rounding into top shape.

He said his charges were sharp during yesterday's practice. He appeared impressed particularly with the work of fullback Dave Leggett, a converted quarterback from New Philadelphia.

The Double-M Six-Man Football League race officially gets underway tonight, but with only one game.

Battling for an early lead in the title chase will be Waldo and Johnsville. The game will be played at Waldo.

The game will mark Waldo's debut in the league. The Marion County school began the sport last year and was admitted into league play for this season.

It will be Johnsville's second start of the early season. In the annual Double-M preview last week, Coach Charles Ogg's crew lost to Caledonia 13-6. In other preview clashes, LaRue edged Claridon 7-6 and Chesterville stopped Marengo 12-0.

Four lettermen return from last year's Johnsville squad which came in second in the Double-M loop and wound up the season with a 5-3 record. LaRue and Claridon, who last year won both their preview games, shared the Double-M title.

LaRue, Caledonia, Claridon, Marengo, Chesterville and Sparta are idle tonight, but most of the squads are in action next week as action is intensified.

Don Johnson Signs With Cincy Redlegs

Don Johnson, former Harding High School baseball player, has been signed by the Cincinnati Redlegs. He will report to the Redlegs' farm club at Columbia, S. C. in the Class A Sally League next spring.

Johnson is a former member of the Brooklyn Dodger farm system but has been a free agent since his discharge last year from the Army.

Prior to entering the Army Don hurled for the Greenville club of the Sally League. That club dropped from the Sally League into the Class B Tri-State Circuit following his induction and later ceased operations. Johnson along with his teammates were made free agents.

The local hurler worked out with the Redlegs last Saturday and Sunday and signed the contract early this week. He will report for spring training early in March.

Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs Lloyd Johnson of Oak Grove Ave., is the second pitcher from the Mid-Ohio baseball league to sign with Cincinnati. Ohlen Hemmerly of Forest was inked earlier.

Neither the Redlegs nor Johnson revealed any bonus figures.

Bucyrus Redmen Play Tiffin Tonight

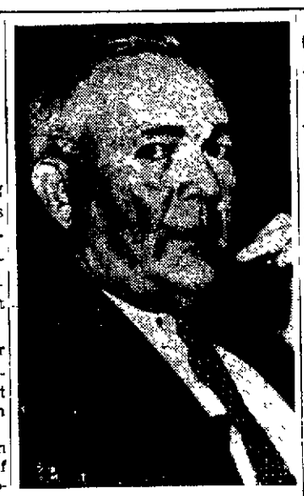
BUCYRUS — A large crowd of Bucyrians are expected to follow Bucyrus High's Redmen to Tiffin Columbian tonight for the season's gridiron opener for both squads.

Coach Richard Frantz will field a veteran team, composed of eight seniors and three juniors, from a squad, which numbers 13 lettermen.

Bucyrus' backfield is expected to be composed of Glen Butterman, Tom Smith, Frank Barth and Bud Armstrong.

Co-captains are Butterman, who is expected to handle the punting and passing chores, and Bob Stauffer, veteran center.

Bucyrus opens its home season next Friday night when Norwalk is here for a Northern Ohio League game.



HORNSBY IS OUT. Rogers "Rajah" Hornsby, who became manager of the Cincinnati Red Legs in August, 1952, appears at the phone in the lobby of a Cincinnati hotel as he received word from Red Legs General Manager Gabe Paul that he is through as Cincinnati manager. Hornsby commented, "I'm satisfied I did a good job. My conscience is clear."

First Hockey Player Signed by Barons

Coach Ott Heller Selects Kenny Schultz To Play Forward

The Marion Barons Hockey Club today announced the signing of red-headed forward Kenny Schultz as the Barons trained at Barrie, Ont., for the opening of the International Hockey League season.

Ott Heller, coach of the Barons, said "Kenny will be able to play at left wing or center since he has played both positions." "He has plenty of what it takes to be in there fighting when the going gets rough," he added.

Schultz was knocked out twice in one game in 1948 while playing for the Washington Lions. "I expect to give and take a few more jolts before this season is over," Kenny grinned afterward. "It's all in the game."

Breaking in organized hockey with the Pittsburgh Hornets, Schultz has played with the Washington Lions and the Cleveland Barons and in the Pacific Coast League. Born in Preston, Ontario in 1926, he stands five feet, 11 inches and weighs 175 pounds. He is married and plans to live and work in Marion during the off-season.

Coaches Heller and Bun Cook of Cleveland put their charges through light workouts for the second day of training at the combined Marion-Cleveland training camp on Lake Simcoe.

The season ticket campaign was kicked-off at the first meeting of the Marion Baron Boosters at White's Cottage on Route 30-N with Frank Foster, president of the club, telling approximately 50 Marionites "the entry of Marion into the International Hockey League has made other cities such as Columbus and Mansfield sit up and take notice." "The installing of an ice rink at the Coliseum will make it a fine gathering for the people of Marion," Foster continued.

Tony Hemmerling, general manager of the Barons, showed the group a 20-minute hockey film and then answered questions on hockey and the Barons.

Among those at the meeting were Bob White, Fred Bauldauf, Jack Boyd, Virgil Dye, Ray Semmler, Cleo Ludwig, Hugo Malo, Sam Wood, Dr. Floyd Yeager, Robert Mason, Chris Turoff, Dr. J. G. McNamara and H. L. Arbogast.

Hockey opens at the Coliseum Saturday, Oct. 10, with a free hockey clinic. Plays and rules will be run off by the Marion Barons against the Cleveland Barons, American Hockey League champions and parent club of the local Barons. Cleveland and Marion are scheduled in an exhibition match Sunday, Oct. 11, at 3 p.m. as the hockey season opens at the Coliseum.

OTT HELLER, coach of the Marion Barons, is shown pointing out a hockey prospect to Coach Bun Cook of Cleveland at their combined training camp on Lake Simcoe at Barrie, Ontario. The teams open the hockey season at the Coliseum on Oct. 11 in an exhibition game.

Starr and Fox Win Matches at Armory

First match of a double main event at the Marion Armory was a girls bout won by Suzie Starr. She and Juanita Coffman were tied with one fall each when Coffman was disqualified in the third fall for fouling and roughing referee, Dusty Rodus.

The second half of the main go went to Billy Fox in what was billed as a Tri-State Gold Belt match Fox won the first fall over Irish Mike McGee with drop kicks, then was awarded the second fall after McGee fouled him.

The opener was won by Ralph Alexander over Dano O'Shocker.

Toledo Sox Lead In Playoff Series

By The Associated Press

Toledo and Kansas City are leading their respective American Association series playoffs, two games to one, after victories last night over Louisville and Indianapolis.

Toledo took a 3-2 thriller over Louisville while Kansas City edged the Indians, 4-3. The Sox and the Colonels rest tonight before resuming their best-of-seven series at Louisville tomorrow. Meanwhile, Kansas City moves to Indianapolis tonight for the fourth game in their playoff.

Sam Jethroe was the hero for Toledo in its triumph over Louisville. He drove in all three Sox runs with an infield grounder in the third and a two-run triple in the fifth.

Bob Chakales went all the way for Indianapolis, giving up a dozen hits.

Brown Faces Tough Job of Cutting Team

CLEVELAND (AP)—The keep-or-cut problem this season has been one of the toughest Coach Paul Brown has had in the eight years he has put professional football players through their pre-season training.

And the problem is still with Brown as his Cleveland Browns prepare to play their last exhibition contest tomorrow night against the Green Bay Packers in Cleveland Stadium.

"This is one year I can say truthfully I'm glad we had a long training camp period and plenty of exhibition games," Brown said.

Brown took 52 players into camp at Hiram College July 28, and that number has been pared to 39. But six more must be dropped before the season opener with Green Bay in Milwaukee a week from Sunday.

Chances are the cuts will be put off until the final week—Giving everyone a chance to show his stuff in the sixth exhibition game.

Won't Pick Series Winner

Dressen Claims Brooklyn Better Than Last Season

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

The New York Yankees haven't fooled Charley Dressen by losing one game to Cleveland and two out of three to the St. Louis Browns under his watchful eyes.

The Brooklyn manager, who has been doing some personal World Series scouting from a Yankee Stadium box near home plate, declared today:

"They look about the same as last year."

As for his own ball club, Dressen said.

"I think we're better than last year."

But he added quickly:

"I don't say we're going to win. But if we can put the same fellows on the field we were using a couple of weeks ago and if we can get the pitching, I think we're better than they are."

A year ago the Yankees beat the Dodgers in a seven game series.

With Dressen in the stands the American League champions bowed 1-0 to Bob Lemon of Cleveland; split a twin bill with the Browns, losing 5-3 and winning 3-2, and lost to the Browns yesterday 7-1.

Against the Browns Casey Stengel used a flock of his Yankee second stringers.

"Our scouts don't get to see them very often," Dressen observed. "I was glad to get the chance. It looked to me like (Allie Reynolds and (Ed) Lopat were taking it easy, just getting in some work."

Dressen said he understood that Johnny Podres, one of his young pitchers who has been injured, was fit again and said he was going to see Carl Furillo on Saturday. Furillo, the league's leading hitter, has been out of action for two weeks with a broken finger.

"He's been working out," Dressen said. "He had some new X-ray pictures taken to see how it's healing and we'll talk things over Saturday."

Because of his self-imposed scouting duties, Dressen wasn't on hand to see his club win its 100th game of the season in St. Louis yesterday. A three-run ninth inning rally gave Carl Erskine his 20th victory by a 4-3 margin as Wayne Bellardi singled home the tieing and winning runs.

Situated in the County of Marion, in the State of Ohio, and in the Township of Prospect and bounded and described as follows:

Being in Section 3, Township 7, Range 20, United States Military Lands, founded and described as follows: Commencing at a stone on corner of Lots 6, 7, 8 and 9. Thence south 3 degrees west one hundred twenty three and one-half (123½) feet to a stone on a post in Lot Line 7 and 8. Thence West two hundred six and five twelfths (206 5/12) feet to a post. Thence south three degrees west 200 7/12 feet to a post in center of township road. Thence south 82½ degrees east 206 5/12 feet, to a post in center of township road and to a lot line 7 and 8. Thence north 3 degrees East 223 3/12 feet to a place of beginning.

Excepting from the foregoing described premises the following described lands:

Commencing at a stone on a post at the north east corner of the above described land; thence west 152 11/12 feet to a post, beginning at this post; thence west 53½ feet to a post, and the north east corner of Joseph Petty One Acre Lot. Thence south 3 degrees west 200 7/12 feet to an iron post in center of Township road. Thence south 82½ degrees East 53 8/12 feet to an iron post in center of said road. Thence north 3 degrees East 205 11/12 feet to a place of beginning. Containing after the exception three-fourths (¾) of an acre of land.

Said petition further alleges that plaintiffs are the owners of and are in possession of said real estate, and that the interest claimed by said defendants is unfounded and without right and constitutes a cloud upon plaintiffs' title to said real estate.

The prayer of the petition is that the defendants named be required to set forth the nature of their claim, that said adverse claim of defendants be determined and declared null and void; that said defendants be forever enjoined from asserting said claim; that the plaintiff, Irvin C. Annie Rooney — By Darrell McClure

GEE, ZERO— EVERYTHING IS STARTIN' TO LOOK KINDA FUNNY— IT'S STOPPED RAININ, BUT THE SUN AIN'T COMIN'OUT—
IT'S FOG— AN' IT'S GETTIN'— TERRIBLE THICK— I KNOW THE RIVER IS RIGHT OVER THERE, BUT NOW I CAN'T EVEN SEE IT— WE GOTTA GET HOME!
THERE'S THE COTTAGE NOW— MR. COBB IS SWELL— HE'S GOT ALL THE LIGHTS ON, AN' KEEPS RINGIN' A BELL, JUST LIKE HE WAS A LIGHTHOUSE—
DING, DING, DING!
WHEW— I WAS GETTING WORRIED— I DIDN'T DARE GO OUT AND HUNT FOR YOU, FOR FEAR OF MISSING YOU IN THE FOG— COME INSIDE BEFORE IT GETS SO THICK WE CAN'T EVEN CLOSE THE DOOR—
AW- YOU'RE ONLY FOOLIN'
